DOMINICAN DEDICATES DINING HALL

A new dining hall, named Caleruega to commemorate the Spanish town where St. Dominic was born, was dedicated yesterday afternoon by Most. Rev. Merlin J. Guilfoyle. Also dedicated was a new residence hall to be known as Pennafort Hall. It was named in honor of the late Mother Mary Raymond O'Connor, Mother General of the Dominican Sisters of San Rafael and former president of the college, who had as her patron St. Raymond of Pennafort. (Independent-Journal photo)

Mill Valley Tags Fund For Harbor Plans

The Mill Valley City Council last night hoisted itself by its financial bootstraps and with some fancy shifting of funds came up with $4,000 to start planning work on the proposed small craft harbor at the end of the Sausalito Canal in the Mill Valley marshlands.

The action represents a major victory for Dr. Charles P. Guichard, member of the parks and recreation commission, who has labored for months on the harbor proposal.

CITY LACKED FUNDS
The state Small Craft Harbors Commission has indicated its willingness, under certain conditions, to lend the city up to $300,000 for small craft harbor construction, but the city lacked funds for the required plans.

The money shift was suggested by City Manager A. E. Almcraants. He recommended "borrowing" $4,000 from the flood control fund, to be repaid from future tax receipts.

The plan nearly foundered when City Atty. Thomas C. Nelson repeated his previous warning that "any such borrowing must be returned from the first tax receipts, and not later." He warned that this meant April receipts, which the city has already allocated.

COULD REPEAT
The council sidestepped the problem by observing that the borrowing process could be repeated at that time to satisfy legal requirements.

Almcraants said the plan had the blessing of City Treasurer Edward H. Daniel and Fiscal Director Harry A. Tomlinson. Mayor Robert D. Huber said that in using city rather than state funds for the planning work, the city council would control the planning while saving interest charges. He also told Guichard, "If more money is needed, it can probably be obtained the same way."

Almcraants reported that 10 planning consultants had applied for the job of harbor planning. The council agreed that county Planning Director Mary Summers should coordinate the program with whatever plan is formulated by the county, and that plans must be developed in coordination with the state Small Craft Harbors Commission.

Planner Suggests Sausalito Should Annex Marin City

Sausalito planner Sydney H. Williams suggested last night that Sausalito should annex Marin City.

His proposal startled a throng that filled the Sausalito City Council chamber for a planning commission hearing in the city's master plan.

It came at the conclusion of a two-hour presentation of the master plan contracted for more than a year ago at a cost of $5,100 to the city.

Williams said that, even though Highway 101 separates Sausalito and Marin City, the latter should be annexed. If it were a part of the city, Sausalito could control its development, he pointed out.

A similar proposal more than 10 years ago was defeated at the polls.

Williams also advocated that the city annex property at the north city limits, including the tideland property owned by George Kappas and being developed as a yacht harbor.

He urged that Sausalito annex parts of the Marinship area not now in the city, along with property south of the city to Yellow Bluff, now a part of Ft. Baker, and tidelands out to the center of Richardson Bay.

In presenting the master plan, Williams emphasized it is general. "This is not a precise plan," he declared, "but is a general policy and is only the beginning. It is good only if it is accepted and carried out."

"Sausalito is a very special place, not only on the Bay Area and in California but also in the country and

THIEVES SMASH STORE WINDOW TO SWIPE 4 TELEVISION SETS

Bold television thieves smashed the front window of Halvorson's Auto Store in Ignacio this morning and fled with four portable TV sets worth $780.

Sheriff's deputies said thieves using the same type of attack hit stores in Sonoma County recently.

Deputy Sheriff Charles E. Newman, on patrol about 4:30 a.m., noticed the front glass, eight feet square, was broken. When he had passed by 10 minutes earlier, the glass had been intact.

Gilbert E. Halvorson of Novato, operator of the auto supply and TV shop, said all four missing television sets are Philco 17-inch portables. Two were black, one white and one gold.

Newspaperboys who were folding papers opposite Rexall Drug Store said they heard a noise about 4:20 a.m., which could have been breaking glass.

Labor Council Won't Bless Strike Against Marin Locals

The Marin County Labor Council last night upheld its executive board in refusing Office Employees Union Local 3 sanction to strike against nine Marin labor organizations.

The union is threatening a strike against the Labor Council, the Building Trades Council, Construction and General Laborers Union 291, Carpenters Union 35, Machinists Lodge 238, Operating Engineers Union 3, Bartenders and Culinary Workers Union 128, Painters Union 83 and Retail Clerks Union 1119.

Just what happens next remains in doubt. A clerk at the Office Employees Union headquarters in San Francisco said at noon today the local had not yet been informed of the council's action.

The Labor Council's executive board was reported to have split almost evenly last Friday night on the question of granting strike sanction. Whether a similar split occurred in full membership of the Labor Council last night was not learned.

The Labor Council is made up of delegates from all AFL-

CIO affiliates in Marin County.

"Last-ditch negotiations were reported to have been under way yesterday between the Office Employees and representatives of the unions against which the strike is proposed. There was no word of a break in the impasse, however.

At issue is severance pay for discharged office workers.

The tangle is an intricate one for the unions involved. The usual process in setting up a strike is for the union which wishes to walk out to obtain sanction from the governing council—in this case the Marin County Labor Council. Then a walkout date is set, with the employer usually notified in advance of the actual walkout.

However, since the Labor Council refused strike sanction, a walkout by the Office Employees Union would appear to be what organized labor calls a "wildcat strike." In such a case, union members are not obligated to observe picket lines. This could bring about the interesting development of union members crossing picket lines to get to the offices of their own unions.

Storms Spread Misery In East Half Of Nation

Five States Flooded; Heavy Snowfall, Winds Wreak Ruin

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Winter's worst storms eased off today but intense cold added to the suffering of millions of shivering Americans.

Thousands were homeless in flooded areas in Ohio, Kentucky, Pennsylvania, Indiana and New York.

And 49 deaths were reported in the territory hit by heavy snow, ice storms, slashing rains or tornadoic winds—a territory that extended from the Southwest to the Atlantic Seaboard.

CHECKS RUNOFF

Arctic air spread south and east. It increased the misery of residents of the storm zones, but it checked the runoff of waters into flooded streams.

Flood damage ran into many millions of dollars.

The bitter cold checked Ohio's worst flood in 25 years. Thousands of evacuees began trickling back to their homes. But thousands of others stayed in schools and other emergency quarters.

The crisis was over in Mount Vernon, a city of 16,000 that experienced the worst inundation of central Ohio communities.

BREAK IN N. Y.

The cold air mass moving in from the west also was a break to the flooded areas of New York state.

Hundreds of families were forced from their homes in Buffalo, N. Y., last night and today. In South Buffalo, an ice jam in Cazenovia Creek broke and sent a five-foot wall of water through residential streets. Several persons were injured.

Rivers and creeks gushed out of their beds in many parts of western Pennsylvania. Hundreds fled from their homes.

BUSINESSES CLOSE

The Shenango River spilled over into Sharon, Pa. Most downtown business houses were closed because of water in basements.

The 200 residents of Forksville, Pa., got out of a strange watery trap. An ice jam backed up the water from Big Loyalock Creek, which virtually surrounds the little town. Then rain broke the ice jam and the water receded, leaving chunks of ice in streets and yards.

A state of emergency law was declared in Madison, Ind., where 100 families were forced from their homes by overflows from the Ohio River.

HUGE HAILSTONES

It was the wind that wrought the havoc in the South. Hail the size of baseballs shattered and damaged automobiles in Hartselle, Ala.

Skies cleared in the Midwest in the wake of snows that reduced traffic to a crawl and sleet that snapped power and communication lines.

The blockbuster snow storm, which swept out of the Great Plains and dumped up to a foot of snow across the midlands, curtailed normal activities in hundreds of communities.

The biting, stiff winds which swirled the snow into big drifts paralyzed travel in many areas.

Tornadoic winds dealt death and destruction in Kentucky. Twisters skipped across farming communities in Grayson County, 75 miles southwest of Louisville, killing two persons. A woman was killed and three other persons were injured in Lexington when a television tower toppled and crashed into the studio.

NEW GRAND JURORS SWORN INTO DUTY

Judge Tells 19-Member Panel It Should Act As 'Sword And Shield' For County

Oliver J. Olson Jr. of San Rafael is foreman and George Thierbach of Corte Madera secretary of Marin County's new grand jury, impaneled last night.

Olson is president of the Pacific Barging Co. of San Francisco and former owner of the Richmond-San Rafael Ferry Co. Thierbach is a retired merchant and railroad yardmaster and former mayor of Corte Madera.

County Clerk George S. Jones swore the 19 jurors into office before Judge N. Charles Brustori, presiding judge of Marin Superior Court. Judge Brustori told the panel of five women and 14 men they are the "sword and the shield" for the county, striking terror in the hearts of criminals and shielding the innocent against unjust accusations.

Here are the 17 other members of the new grand jury: James M. Duggan, Fairfax plumber; Mrs. Marie Hensler, Ross housewife; Louis G. Freidman, San Rafael dairyman; Al-pine C. Alpers, San Rafael insurance man; A. Von Rotz, San Anselmo builder and former mayor; Mrs. Augustina Perry, Sausalito housewife; Waldo G. Giacomini, Pt. Reyes dairyman; Mel J. London, San Anselmo. River Floods Mine, Kills 3, Traps 40

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP)—Torrential waters from the swollen Susquehanna River poured into a nearby coal mine shaft today, killing at least three men by first reports and apparently trapping many others.

One mine worker on the scene told newsmen that between 40 and 50 men still were in the mine, unable to get out.

Officials of the Knox Coal Co., which operates the mine, turned reporters away with the curt remark: "We have an emergency and are too busy to talk."

Eight men were reported safe and on their way home from the mine just before 3 p.m. One of them said seven more were coming out after him.

"We had to claw our way out like chipmunks," he related.

He said he did not know what happened to perhaps 30 or more others who were in the mine.

Pittston is a community of more than 16,000 in northeastern Pennsylvania's hard coal belt, not far from Wilkes-Barre and Scranton.

A reporter for the Scranton Times said the flooding Susquehanna poured into the river slope shaft where the men were working and that the company dumped mine cars into the opening in an effort to check the rush of water.

Andrew Wilson, state mine inspector, arrived quickly and called upon other coal companies to get more mine cars into the breach.

Robert Grove, a foreman for the Knox company, managed to get down the shaft but came right up again.

Hub Council Grants 50-Cent Monthly Garbage Fee Hike

Garbage collection will cost San Anselmo householders 50 cents per month more soon.

The San Anselmo City Council by 3-2 vote last night granted a 50-cent raise to San Anselmo Garbage Disposal, to cover additional costs of hauling to the far-away Burdell dump.

Casting the "no" votes were Councilmen Carleton G. E. Little and Jordan L. Martinelli Jr., who questioned purported cost figures submitted by the scavenger firm in support of its application.

NEW RATES

The new rates will start at $2 per month for a 30-gallon can in level areas. Basic rate on hillsides will go to $2.25 a month. Commercial garbage pickup will be raised 31 per cent.

An ordinance must be drafted and passed before the increases can take effect. Presumably this will make it possible for the new rates to apply on April billings.

Speaking in behalf of the raise, attorney Robert Praetzel, representing the scavenger company, said the company will agree to place in trust any money received from Smith brothers, dump operators, as the result of a court action. If appellate courts do not reverse a decision of the Marin County Superior Court that the firm is entitled to damages for abrogation of contract by the Smiths, garbage rates will be reduced to their former figures until 1964, said Praetzel.

SEEKING DAMAGES

San Anselmo Garbage Disposal is seeking some $165,000 damages because Smith brothers refused to longer accept garbage at their Santa Venetia dump. See GARBAGE, page 4

Makes Plea For End To Deadlock

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown, speaking out against narrow, sectional differences, proposed a 658-million-dollar program today for a vast state system to get water where it's needed in California.

"It is time to start moving dirt and stop throwing mud," he told the Legislature in a special message delivered in person.

The governor did not recommend a constitutional amendment on north-south water rights—the irritant which has brought state water development to a virtual standstill.

'NOT CLOSING DOOR'

"I am not hostile to an amendment and I am not closing the door on one," he said. "But I am convinced that our positive program of water development should not be delayed by further frustrating debate over the terms of a constitutional amendment."

Brown's six-point program calls for upward of 38 million dollars right away. It is built around a Feather River dam, north of Sacramento, and San Luis Reservoir, the mid-state transfer point in the San Joaquin Valley.

COMMON POOL

Water would be taken out of the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta from a common pool. One aqueduct would move it south, via San Luis. The other would feed into the South San Francisco Bay area.

The governor's message delivered before a joint session of the Legislature, urges action to:

1. Commit the entire investment fund to water development. The fund, from tideland oil revenue, will total 158 million dollars by June 30.
2. Appropriate 38 million dollars this year to buy aqueduct rights of way, launch up

Driver Found Innocent Of Manslaughter

Petaluma truck driver John Louis Boitano, 50, is innocent of manslaughter in the traffic death of Harvey A. Stoudt of San Francisco near Greenbrae last April.

A jury which heard testimony on the accident before Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court freed Boitano of any blame.

A witness said that a red truck had cut in front of Stoudt's snorhbound car just north of Greenbrae, forcing Stoudt over the center line. An oncoming car hit Stoudt's vehicle broadside, killing him. The witness said he stopped at the accident for a moment, then drove after the red truck. He caught up with the truck a short distance away and took down the license number.

Boitano said he did notice an accident through his rear view mirror but did not stop and does not think he was in any way involved.

'CHECKER OF THE YEAR' CHECKER — Mrs. Anna Martignoli checks big order of groceries for Purity Stores customer with usual dispatch. CHECKER CONTEST

3 Women In Close Race At San Rafael Purity Store

The smiling clerk who checks your groceries may be a club leader.

For instance, there's Anna Martignoli, one of the Purity Stores checkers entered in this year's competition for "Checker of the Year," a national contest with prizes ranging up to $25,000.

Mrs. Martignoli, who lives at 40 Brookdale avenue, San Rafael, presides at one of the check stands in the San Rafael Purity Store on Third street. She's been with Purity five years, and before that was with Garatti Grocery on San Rafael's B street for 12 years.

But, observed J. L. Painter, manager of the San Rafael Purity Store, a lot of the people who remember Mrs. Martignoli's smile as she checks their groceries might be surprised to know she is a past commander of Marinita Parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West, and a past president of the Navy Mothers Club.

Mrs. Martignoli's husband, Romeo, works for Pacific Gas and Electric Co. Their son, Raymond, now storekeeper at San Quentin, was student body president when he attended San Rafael High School. They have a daughter, too, Mrs. Dolores Ingemansson, who now lives in Sweden.

Voting for favorite checker at the San Rafael Purity Store so far shows three women—of whom is Mrs. Martignoli—in an extremely close race, Painter said.

The store manager was amazed at how many customers want to vote for "Checker of the Year." A supply of ballots the store had prepared to last two weeks was exhausted in one day, Painter said.

Voting will continue through Feb. 14.

San Rafael Chamber Sets Annual Dinner

An officer of Kaiser Industries Corp., Raymond Fournival, will be the speaker for the 38th annual dinner and installation of officers of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce next Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at Bob's of Marin in Corte Madera.

Fournival is assistant to the director of public relations for the famed California firm. He joined Kaiser a few years ago as associate editor of its award-winning publications. Prior to that he was assistant publicity manager of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, was associated with a Bay Area metropolitan daily and with some radio stations, and taught at San Francisco State College.

During World War II he served with the Army in Washington, D.C. He now resides in San Francisco.

His talk, entitled "Opportunity—Happencance or Habit?" will cover the worldwide business network of Kaiser Industries, its new headquarters building now being constructed in Oakland and the opportunities for men in the west reflected through the rise of Henry J. Kaiser.

Fred Enemark, 1958 chamber president, will deliver a brief report of accomplishments. Paul Leahy, 1959 president, and his fellow officers will be installed by master of ceremonies Leon Smith. Rev. Henry B. Getz of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in San Rafael will deliver the invocation.

Entertainment will be provided by the Marin chapter of the Society for Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America.

GROUND BROKEN FOR BIG RECREATION CENTER

San Rafael's Mayor John F. McInnis is a man who believes that "ground-breaking" should be just that. As photographer snapped this picture yesterday at site of two-and-one-half-million-dollar recreation center at Vivian and Belvedere streets, the mayor hurled shovelful of dirt high in the air. Less athletic with his shovel at the moment was City Manager Dan E. Andersen. In background are (from left) Mrs. Margaret Keenan, George Dobbs,

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Lee N. Rockwood, Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Masbery and R. E. McLean, all associated with the development which will see 40 bowling alleys, an Olympic-sized swim pool, billiard room, restaurant, cocktail lounge, dance floor and tots' nursery rise on a three-acre property directly behind the King Cotton restaurant. The huge one-story building is expected to be completed within five months. (Independent-Journal photo)

Group Still Hopes To 1-Way Second And Third Streets

The mayor's traffic committee studying one-way streets for San Rafael has not given up the idea of making Second and Third streets one-way to move east-west traffic through the city.

The committee, led by acting chairman Jerry Stone, met this morning at King Cotton restaurant to discuss one-way traffic to supplement the "traffic circle" plan. The "traffic circle" will go into effect on March 2. That means one-way eastbound under the Irwin street overpass, one way north on Irwin to Third, west to Lincoln, south to Second, and east again to the underpass.

The city council adopted that plan and asked the traffic committee to present other recommendations so that the changes can go into effect all at once on March 2 instead of piecemeal over a period of months.

The traffic committee will meet again at 8 a.m. next Thursday to decide whether Second and Third should become one-way streets.

Committee members also pointed out that the three new offstreets parking lots are not too well known to the public. City Manager Dan E. Andersen said large signs are being planned at the entrances to the parking lots.

Stone and George E. Kaenel said most people do not realize the lots are for two-hour parking. Some customers do not know the lots are for public parking. Stone even suggested that preferential meter rates be established for the municipal offstreet parking lots to encourage drivers to get their cars off the streets and into

HOW WATER WOULD FLOW — Main features of Gov. Edmund G. Brown's water program are shown in this map. The governor asked the Legislature today for 38 million dollars to get work under way during the 1959-60 fiscal year. Water from the north would be collected in a pool at the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta, then moved by aqueduct to the San Joaquin and Southern California areas. It also would be piped to the southern San Francisco Bay counties. The governor urged development of several dam projects and establishment of a nuclear sea water conversion plant in Southern California. (AP Wirephoto)

Brown's Water Plans Skip N. Bay Aqueduct

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Gov. Edmund G. Brown today described the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta as "the tap from which the water can flow" to the thirsty areas of the state. But he failed to mention even the possibility of constructing a pipeline to the North Bay Area.

The governor proposed a 10.7-million-dollar appropriation for a "great aqueduct system" to the Southland; 7.9 million dollars for the South Bay Aqueduct rights of way and initial construction; a study of service to the central coastal counties; an appropriation for bringing fresh water to the delta, and 2.4 million for upstream features of the Feather River Projects so water would be available in Plumas and Sierra Counties.

But he did not mention even the existence of a North Bay Aqueduct plan. The 1957 Legislature appropriated $1,340,000 for completion of engineering studies and preparation of construction plans and specifications for the North Bay project. It would run from the Steamboat Slough area of the delta through Solano, Napa, Sonoma and Marin Counties to a reservoir near Novato.

Governor Brown's office said "this does not mean we are abandoning the North Bay Aqueduct, only that no capital outlay is contemplated in 1959-1960."

Harvey O. Banks, chief of the Department of Water Resources, said that lack of local interest was a major factor in omission of the North Bay project from this year's water program.

"We have nothing against the North Bay Aqueduct," Banks said, "but we must have strong evidence of local interest and support and need for water before we can feel justified in recommending funds for construction.

He said that the 1957 appropriation has "virtually been exhausted" and that engineering and planning are far enough along that the exact needs for rights of way purchase are known.

Banks declared that if proper support develops in the counties, "I don't believe the governor would have any objection to including funds for rights of way purchases in this year's budget." Sen. John F. McCarthy of Marin has indicated he would introduce such legislation.

Merchants May Sponsor Egg Hunt

Ten members of the Fairfax Merchants Assn. decided at their noon meeting yesterday to investigate cost of an Easter egg hunt in Fairfax Park. A final decision on whether to sponsor an egg hunt will probably be made at next Wednesday's meeting, said Mrs. William T. Benson, secretary.

Mrs. Dan Celoni offered to donate a statue of Columbus for Claus circle, where she has recently moved and which the City of Fairfax is planning to landscape. The merchants agreed to present her offer to the city council if all residents of Claus circle were in favor of the statue. The merchants thought some resident there should poll the others.

Pomeroy Construction Firm Buys Gerwick Co.

J. H. Pomeroy and Co., Inc. and Ben C. Gerwick, Inc., announced today that the Pomeroy company has purchased all of the stock of the Gerwick company.

Robert N. Pomeroy of Newell road, Ross, and William A. Pomeroy of 86 San Carlos avenue, Sausalito, brothers who are president and executive vice president, respectively, of the Pomeroy company, will be key figures among the directorate of the subsidiary. The two companies are among San Francisco's oldest and largest heavy construction and engineering firms.

The Pomeroy company has construction crews currently operating in the Western Pacific, Philippine Islands, the Middle East and South America.

Local projects of the Pomeroy company have included steel erection of the Golden Gate bridge approaches and the Sausalito approach road to the Golden Gate Bridge.

The Gerwick company recently completed Standard Oil's Long Wharf at Richmond. It constructed the foundations for the Richmond-San Rafael bridge and worked with Pomeroy on the lower deck approaches to that structure and the Black Point Bridge.

South State Suffers In Dry Spell

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Southern California is hurting for rain.

Fire danger is rising. Winter irrigation costs more than usual. Residents are pouring great quantities of water on shrubs and lawns. Winter sports areas are suffering from lack of snow.

Rainfall this season is the fourth lowest in 81 years of records. So far, since July, only 1.76 inches of rain has fallen in downtown Los Angeles.

Normal rainfall to this date is 6.91 inches. Last year 6.16 inches had fallen by this time. The fire department says winds and low humidity could make fire conditions as serious as those early this month at the time of the Topanga and Benedict Canyon brush fires.

Marinite Patents Speaker's Aid

A patent for a self-promoter designed to aid public speakers has been issued by the U. S. Patent Office to Donald J. Taylor of 134 Yale avenue, Mill Valley.

Taylor, who calls the invention "Cuff Notes," says the device is held inconspicuously in the hand and used by the speaker to feed himself periodic cues during his talk.

It is re-usable and can be set up quickly, says Taylor, who hopes to have his invention on the market soon.

Hedy Lamarr Sues Mate For $51,000

HOUSTON, Tex. (UP)—Movie star Hedy Lamarr, claiming she is seriously ill and in "desperate financial straits," yesterday sued her estranged oilman husband for $51,000.

Miss Lamarr claimed her husband, W. Howard Lee, violated their separation agreement signed last Aug. 6 when they decided to live apart.

The suit was filed in the federal district clerk's office by attorney Frederick W. Robinson. Miss Lamarr filed in behalf of herself and two employees living with her at Beverly Hills.

Lee could not be contacted for comment. It was believed he was staying at the Villa Lamarr Resort Hotel in Aspen, Colo., which was named after his wife and owned jointly by the couple.

Miss Lamarr's suit claimed: "As a direct consequence of the defendant's utter failure and refusal to recognize, perform or fulfill his obligations under said agreement, plaintiff Hedy Lamarr has been catapulted into desperate financial straits, becoming seriously ill."

The suit said Miss Lamarr has "required constant medical attention and nursing care" for several months.

Windows Broken In Loma Verde Homes

B-B pellets and rocks have been wreaking havoc on windows of new homes going up in Loma Verde, the construction foreman complained to Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos yesterday.

James P. Chadwick, foreman for Sheehan Development Co. of Orinda, said the homes are being built along Calle De La Selva in Ignacio.

Almost every day, the rear windows of homes are broken, Chadwick said. He listed a dozen broken windows in at least eight homes along the one street.

Where Are POWs?

PANMUNJOM, Korea (AP)—The U.N. Command today demanded an accounting of 2,147 Allied prisoners still missing from the Korean War. The Communists promptly rejected the demand and charged that the Allies are detaining 98,742 Communist war prisoners.

The demands and charges were made at a meeting of the Military Armistice Commission in the demilitarized zone here.

Paul Shawn Wingate, 16-year-old Tamalpais High School senior is one of 29 California high school students chosen to receive honor awards in the 18th annual Science Talent Search conducted by Westinghouse Electric Corp.

He is one of 427 throughout the United States who will compete for scholarships and awards totaling $34,250. Forty of the 427 will be selected as finalists for an all-expense trip to Washington, D.C. to attend the five-day Science Talent Institute beginning Feb. 26.

Lagunitas School Board To Set Early Tax Election

Lagunitas School board will meet at 8 tonight in Lagunitas School to discuss the setting of a date for a tax election.

Mrs. Winifred Frederick, clerk and secretary of the board, explained that school officials hope to hold a tax election before the regular May 19 trustee elections. A previous announcement in the Independent-Journal said the tax election would be discussed in conjunction with the May 19 election.

Mrs. Frederick explained they want to hold the elections on separate dates, not in conjunction with each other.

The present school tax rate is $1.75 per $100 assessed valuation. But if the voters do not vote to continue that rate, the rate automatically drops to 90 cents.

2 Fliers Complete 49th Day Aloft

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Two Air Force veterans completed their 49th day aloft today, flying their single engine craft over the city for aerial refueling in quest of the current 50-day world's airplane endurance record.

Pilots Robert Timm, 32, formerly of Mason City, Iowa, and now a Las Vegas, Nev., businessman, and John Cook, 33, a Los Angeles-Las Vegas airlines flyer, radioed they expected to begin the 50th day late this afternoon.

Timm and Cook, who took the light plane off from McCarran Field, Las Vegas, on Dec. 4, said their present goal was 60 days in the air.

WATER

stream development and study sea water conversion—perhaps the future answer to California's water problem.

BIG BOND ISSUE

3. Submit a 500-million-dollar bond issue to the voters next year to complete the program.

4. Encourage the federal government to finance water projects designed for flood control, irrigation and navigation.

5. Develop California's water resources on a comprehensive statewide basis. "Only thus can we avoid Balkanizing our state into competing water provinces," Brown said.

6. Insure that water will be available to meet the proper demands of every part of the state.

Brown did not elaborate, but presumably the state would guarantee water deliveries by simple contract. In the past, Southern California legislators have insisted on irrevocable rights to northern water, written into the state constitution. The north steadfastly blocked the amendments.

PROBLEM IN GENERAL

In general, the north has the water but no money. The south has the money but no water. The north wants assurances of surplus water, especially in dry years.

With the comment that the water problem has become lost in a forest of fear, the governor pledged he will fight to obtain adequate financing to complete the aqueduct south.

Brown left open the question of whether to start Feather River construction at Bidwell Bar instead of Oroville. Some federal agencies favor Bidwell, upstream from Oroville. State engineers prefer the Oroville site.

The governor asked only 11.9 million dollars for Feather River work—and that for a railroad-highway bridge as part of the Oroville site-clearing.

REPORT DUE

He said he would seek major funds for the project itself after a board of consulting engineers chooses between Bidwell Bar and Oroville. The report is due Feb. 1.

The 38-million-dollar request includes 1.6 millions for use in working with the federal government in construction of a sea water conversion plant.

IN SCIENCE CLUB

Paul is vice president of Tamalpais High's Science Club and a member of the Math Club, Junior Statesmen and Honor T Society. He has been on the swimming squad for three years.

The honor scientists named by Westinghouse today represented the top 10 per cent of 4,274 qualifying contestants for this year's Science Talent Search, the company announced.

Last year another Tam student, Neil L. Ninger of Larkspur, won $3,000 in the Westinghouse Science Talent Search. Paul hopes he can duplicate that feat. So does Raymond J. Palmer, Tam High science teacher who taught both boys.

Six others, who were on the list of prospective jurors until last night, were eliminated.

Theater owner Abe Blumenfeld, Arthur E. Lewis, Sausalito boat builder, and Mrs. Pauline Fisher, Terra Linda housewife, asked to be excused because they are "too busy." Thomas B. Rickey's name was crossed out because he is in Hawaii. From the remaining names, 19 were drawn at random. William L. Hughes Jr., Fairfax sugar executive, and D. Medic Says Boy Needs No New Eye Surgery

Further surgery on the remaining eye of Hugh Thornhill, 7, will be unnecessary until far in the future, if then, a Belvedere eye specialist said today in San Francisco.

Hugh is scheduled to return to Biloxi, Miss., tonight with his parents.

"The boy is seeing now," said Dr. William J. Ferguson Jr., of Belvedere. "He had a cataract in his remaining eye and has had several operations at his home to remedy this situation. The cataract is in the process of becoming absorbed at the moment."

Dr. Ferguson said there were no definite plans for any immediate additional surgery.

"That may come far in the future," the eye specialist said.

The boy has had 10 operations since he was a baby, and his right eye was removed four years ago. He had developed glaucoma, a disease that destroys sight through pressure inside the eyeball. It had been feared that removal of the left eye would become necessary, and the boy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Thornhill, heard about Dr. Ferguson.

Friends of the family at Natchez, Miss., raised the money to take Hugh to San Francisco for examination by the Marin eye specialist.

L. A. Policeman's Killer Sentenced To Gas Chamber

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A transient was sentenced yesterday to die in San Quentin Prison's gas chamber for killing a policeman.

James Hooton, 36, heard the sentence without apparent emotion.

Patrolmen Thomas Scebbi and Ramon Espinosa, each 24, started to check Hooton early June 20 when they saw him standing by a car parked downtown.

Before they reached him, Hooton whipped out a gun and started firing. In the predawn battle, Scebbi died, Espinosa was badly wounded and Hooton was shot in the foot. Espinosa crawled to the police car and called for reinforcements, who caught Hooton. Espinosa still has two bullets in his body.

Student Grouping By Ability Eyed

Four trustees of the Ross Grammar School took a long look Monday night at placement of pupils in classes according to age, and decided the subject needed more discussion.

Supt. Stephen L. Parodi said each grade at Ross School is divided into two classes according to age. The trustees considered shuffling students at the end of each year so that they would get to know a different group.

There was some talk of ability grouping, Parodi reported, but students at Ross School are "rather homogeneous to begin with."

Parodi reported television reception of KQD's educational series has not improved since the station installed a 156,000-watt transmitter. He said a different antenna would be tried and he would report to the trustees at their next meeting.

throughout the world," declared Williams.

He said the plan should be evaluated in terms of population growth in the next 25 years reaching to the 10,000-12,000 mark.

Commission Chairman Victor E. Hecht pleaded for support. "To succeed," he declared, "the Sausalito community plan must have the benefit of the consultation and advice of the citizens of Sausalito. I pledge that the planning commission will hear all comments."

Williams said a proposed rapid transit station should be located on the east side of Bridgeway near Spring street, rather than at the north portal of the proposed tunnel which would end in the Spring street valley.

He also declared, "The distillery certainly should be eliminated from its present site on the west side of Bridgeway."

The planner suggested five steps which should be taken as soon as possible:

1. Undertake development of recreation on the sandspit.
 2. Locate a new city corporation yard in the Marinship area.
 3. Develop the proposed Rodeo avenue "tourist traffic loop."
 4. Improve beach facilities in the Shelter Cove area.
 5. Obtain more playgrounds.
- Public hearings on the overall plan have been set by Chairman Hecht for Wednesday and Thursday of next week at 8 p.m. in the city hall.

Bill Asks Stiff Dope Sale Penalty

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A mandatory 30-year to life sentence for selling marijuana or heroin to minors is asked in a bill introduced yesterday by Assemblyman Frank Lanterman (R-La Canada).

Judges could not grant probation to second offenders under terms of the bill.

Peddlers who sell to minors now receive five years to life for the first offense and 10 years to life for subsequent convictions.

A mandatory 10 to 25-year sentence would be prescribed for hiring or using a minor in unlawfully transporting, selling or giving away narcotics.

Physical Education Setup Told

Tamapais Union High School District trustees heard an outline of the boys' physical education program at a meeting last night at district offices.

District athletic coaches face no particular community pressure for winning teams, and physical education grading is based to a limited extent on ability, J. Robert Fitzhenry, physical education director at Sir Francis Drake High School, told the board.

Fitzhenry said he was proud of the district's physical education program which sees almost complete independence from athletic activities at the schools.

He cited innovations such as having boys wear red, white or blue gym shorts, depending on their relative abilities, and earning of grades higher than a C (average) dependent on athletic abilities.

Fitzhenry said he thought improvement in recent years of the status of physical education was because "administrators used to hire coaches, now they hire physical education instructors."

Trustee Wallace W. Hayes was absent.

Other actions at the 1½ hour meeting included:

1. Acceptance of resignation of Marine Sgt. Lionel Deschane as cadet commandant at Sir Francis Drake High School.

2. Granted tentative approval for one year's sabbatical leave to George Pohlmann, Tamapais High social studies teacher, on the basis a substitute can be found and that Pohlmann's pay will be the difference between his salary and that of the substitute's pay.

3. Unanimously approved granting of an easement across Redwood High property to Pacific Gas and Electric Co. and the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.

4. Approved use of elementary school precincts and officials for May 19 board election for seat occupied by Howard I. McGill, board chairman.

HAS OFFICIAL A GUILTY CONSCIENCE?

City councils in Marin are often plagued with complaints of garbage and refuse dumping on private property — but even city officials themselves are sometimes guilty, Bob Rose of 227 Curry Lane, Sausalito, told the Sausalito City Council Tuesday night.

Rose said that some time ago a man dumped some refuse on his property. "I spoke to him, asking him to remove it, which he agreed to do," said Rose. "That man knows the material is still there and has made no move to do anything about it. . . . He is a very prominent member of the city administration."

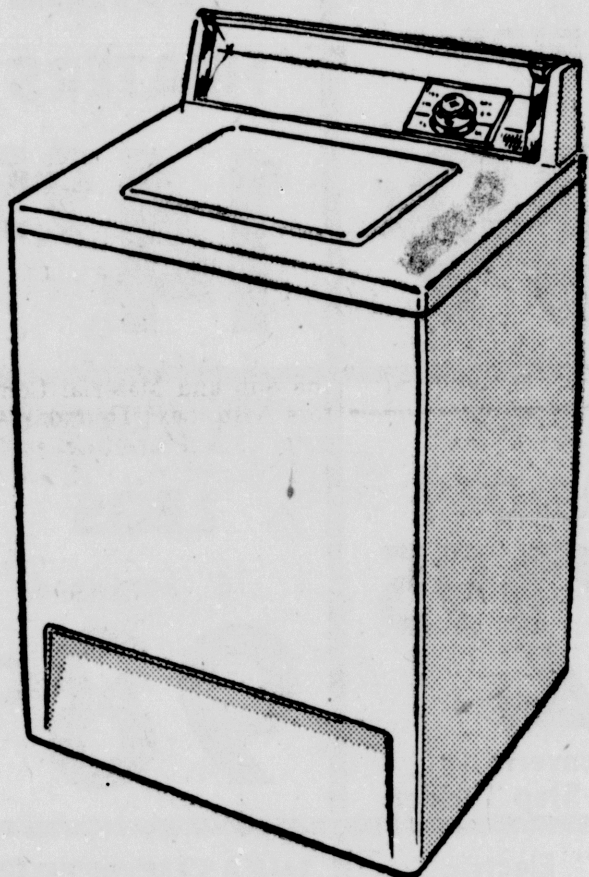

Rose declined to identify the individual.

"Honey Bun" will be sung by freshman girls including Gigi Grove, Irene Saroka, Mary Murnane, Robin Olsece, Cathy Morphy and Tracey Anderson.

Novato Parents Plan Tax District To Fix Up Center, Tamalpais Roads

A proposed walkway along Novato's narrow Center road was scrapped last night by about 40 property owners in favor of forming a special assessment district which would reconstruct both Center road and Tamalpais avenue—complete with curbs and gutters.

The residents gathered at a meeting at West Novato school, called by a group of parents of children who will attend the new Lu Sutton School next fall. It ended in apparent agreement that installation of the walkway would prove impossible due to the unwillingness of some center road residents to donate the necessary frontage.

COLD WAR
Marvin W. Brigham, county public works director, threw cold water on the walkway plan by announcing that title searches would need to be conducted on each parcel of land along the road from Wilson to Diablo avenues, at a cost of $50 per parcel. Total cost of the walkway would approach $7,000, he said.

Furthermore, Brigham warned, "a black-top walkway would always be needing maintenance and would only be a temporary cure to the problem."

TOO NARROW
The real problem, Brigham said, is that "Center road is just too narrow."

"A great many similar road problems have been solved by assessment proceedings, and they are generally considered a good investment—property values go up," declared Brigham.

A petition bearing signatures of owners of 60 per cent of the property within the district is necessary to set up such a district.

The district would pay for curbs, gutters and normal drainage facilities, he said. The county would provide a 40-foot roadway, "and we would recommend that major drainage be taken care of by the county."

Residents on both sides of the street would have to deed a 15-foot-wide strip of frontage to the county and could expect the project to cost about $7 a running foot, said Brigham.

PETITION PLEDGED
Robert Goldener of 1704 Center road declared that he will start a petition for such a district, "but it should include properties along Tamalpais avenue as well as along Center road."

"The larger the assessment district, the better," Brigham said.

One questioner asked Brigham how much it would cost residents to reconstruct the two streets in the event Novato incorporates.

"I can answer that," Brigham said. "I live in an incorporated city on a similar road. I recently signed a petition for a similar improvement that's going to cost me $12 a foot."

"How long would it take for the new street work?" was another question.

"From starting the petition to awarding the contract," Brigham said, "it might take six months. And another four to six months would be required to complete the work."

'NO USE TALKING'
Johan Van Lienden, one of the Lu Sutton parents who originated the proposal for a walkway, and who moderated last night's meeting, admitted that in view of apparent unwillingness of some Center road residents to donate frontage for the walkway, "it's no use talking about it any more."

AW, TOO BAD: REPORT HAS NO PICTURES

SACRAMENTO (UPD) — An Assembly committee studying pornographic literature has decided not to include illustrations in its final report.

The lawmakers said yesterday that although examples of the type of pornography covered in the report might make it easier to understand, they might also place the legislative publication in the class with smut.

Assemblyman Robert W. Crown (D-Alameda) said copies of a fully illustrated report would "bring a good price on the black market."

Army Hits Target With 13th Jupiter

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The Army says it has hit the target on the 13th launching of its Jupiter intermediate-range ballistic missile.

The first tactical model of the 60-foot war rocket soared 1,700 miles over the Atlantic last night on another successful space test, the Army said.

This was the first Chrysler Corp. Jupiter flown. The previous ones were fabricated at Redstone Arsenal, Huntsville, Ala.

The new Jupiter was very similar to the operational version that will soon be assigned to NATO forces in Europe.

It was the first Army launching since Dec. 13, when another Jupiter carried a small monkey on a 1,500-mile trip. Although the firing was termed successful the monkey was not found.

Tam Tax Hike Debated By KTIM Panel

Proponents and opponents of the proposed tax increase for the Tamalpais Union High School District went around and around in friendly but fervent debate this morning on the KTIM "Marin Sounding Board" program.

The one-hour broadcast, moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer, will be repeated Sunday at 12:30 p.m.

Howard I. McGill, chairman of the district board of trustees, led off the four panelists with an outline of reasons for the proposed increase from a $1.25 base rate to $1.90.

CITES INCREASE
McGill's statement that assessed valuation has not kept pace with the increase in pupils in the past 10 years was countered by Arnold Oehler of Mill Valley, member of the Marin County Taxpayers Assn.

Oehler said since 1947 the number of pupils has doubled while costs have risen three and one-half times. He contended the district should "put its house in order before asking the public to sign a blank check for further extravagance."

Robert D. Torrey, district director of instruction, said teachers' pay in the district now is "in the bottom one-fourth of 46 high schools in the Bay Area." He defended academic achievement in the district, saying the three schools were nationally in the top 1 per cent on the basis of the Iowa test of child development.

HITS SPEECHES
Walter R. Sutherland of Mill Valley, father of a Tamalpais High student, insisted he had not yet been shown the tax increase was necessary, and took the district to task for "inflammatory speeches" to students and purchase of a separate microscope for each member of a Tamalpais science class.

McGill said "no school records in California are hidden" in response to an audience question of whether salaries of the administration were deliberately "hidden" within the figure for the teachers' salaries.

To a question of why school district costs were "so high in 1956 and 1957," Torrey said budget figures those years included initiation of the San Quentin Prison adult program and the authorization of a $350,000 Tamalpais High rehabilitation program.

Water District Requested To Survey Lapachet Pipes

Two representatives of the Muir Woods Park Improvement Assn. last night asked the Marin Municipal Water District directors to make a survey of the size and condition of water pipes in the Lapachet tract where they live. They wanted to find out if anything could be done to improve service.

Miss Mildred Corbin and Arthur K. Smart, president and secretary, respectively, of the Muir Woods Park group, also reported to water district directors that the improvement club had gone on record as opposed to any commercial development at the top of Mt.

Goldwater Given GOP Campaign Job

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican senators accepted Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) as their 1959-60 campaign chairman yesterday after opposition from self-styled liberals among them had wilted.

Sen. Leverett Saltonstall (Mass.), chairman of the conference of all Republican senators, said the group had given unanimous ratification to his appointment of Goldwater to head the campaign committee.

Sen. John Sherman Cooper (Ky.) had led the opposition to Goldwater. He had contended publicly that selection of the Arizona might invite Democratic allegations that Republicans are anti-labor. Goldwater says he is not anti-labor at all.

The liberals never did announce support of any candidate of their own for the chairmanship.

Paroles Denied 2 Ex-Folsom Inmates

The Adult Authority meeting at Folsom Prison yesterday denied paroles to two former San Quentin Prison inmates now in Folsom.

The two are: Charles W. Arena, 36, convicted of trying to murder another prisoner with a sharpened wire in August, 1954, while at San Quentin for an Los Angeles robbery; and Richard Merman Crowley, 33-year-old Madera robber who escaped from San Quentin during 1955 for four and one-half months of freedom.

Keeney Against Exams For Chief

The Independent-Journal's story yesterday on a dispute in the Sausalito City Council meeting of Tuesday night over the method of selecting a police chief closed by mentioning that George E. Keeney, who "has consistently backed" City Manager Donald A. Duerr on the policy for making a new chief, was absent.

The story should have identified Councilman Keeney as having consistently opposed Duerr in the matter.

City Manager Duerr has urged an open competitive examination for police chief. Councilman Keeney is among those advocating choosing a chief from among members of the Sausalito police force.

Hope Dim For Lost Tot

LEBANON, Mo. (AP)—Authorities have given up hope of finding Willard Jones Jr., 3, alive.

The boy has been lost in this Ozark Mountain area since Saturday. Searchers, numbering some 5,000 at one time, haven't found a trace of him.

Temperatures in the area have been freezing or below since he wandered away from his farm home 10 miles south of Lebanon. Snow blanketed the area Tuesday night.

Underground Atom Blast Hinted In '60

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States might touch off a peaceful use underground atomic explosion next year if it still isn't making atomic weapons tests.

Chairman John McCone of the Atomic Energy Commission told a news conference yesterday this country could be ready for such a test explosion by late summer but would delay it at least until next year.

He said this country is under no injunction to forego underground blasts to see how feasible they would be for such things as carving out harbors and tapping new sources of oil.

McCone indicated this would hold true although:

1. The United States has said it will not conduct weapons tests for a year from last October if the Soviet Union did not test during the same period.

2. Negotiations are going on in Geneva aimed at determining the feasibility of a weapons test suspension under an international detection system.

'Our Gang's' Alfalfa Shot To Death In Fight Over $50

SAN FERNANDO (AP)—Actor Carl (Alfalfa) Switzer, 33—a freckle-faced, wide-eyed movie star as a boy—was shot to death last night. Police said the shooting had occurred during an argument with another man over money.

Switzer was a favorite of moviegoers a generation ago when he appeared in "Our Gang" and "Reg'lar Fellers" comedies. He became known again with reissue of the films to television under the title "The Little Rascals."

But in recent years his movie parts had been minor, and he worked as a bartender and hunting guide when not acting. He realized nothing from reissue of the old films.

Police said Switzer went to the home of a friend, M. S. Stiltz, 38, last night in an effort to collect a $50 loan.

Detectives Louis Bell and Ernest Johnson said Stiltz told them that an argument had developed and Switzer hit him on the head with a clock. Stiltz got a gun, and it fired harmlessly while they struggled. Stiltz said Switzer drew a knife, and Stiltz shot him in the abdomen.

The shooting was witnessed by Jack Piott, 37, who had accompanied Switzer to Stiltz's home, and Mrs. Rita Jane Corrigan and her three children, who were there when Switzer and Piott arrived.

Stiltz was held for questioning.

Switzer began his movie career in 1933. He and his young colleagues pranced through a long series of "Our Gang" comedies and then, as they grew older, appeared in the "Reg'lar Fellers" series.

Learning of his death, one of Switzer's fellow child stars, George (Spanky) McFarland, said he was "shocked, to say the least." McFarland, who now has a TV show in Tulsa, Okla., said he and Switzer had been close boyhood friends but that they had only infrequent contact in recent years.

Hub Fireman's Return Creates New Bureau

The return of a fireman from Army service resulted last night in institution of a fire prevention bureau in San Anselmo.

The San Anselmo City Council voted 4-1 to put fireman Robert Beedle of 39 Grove lane back to work immediately without releasing anyone from the fire department. City Manager Arthur W. Brewer was instructed to follow through to see that Fire Chief Nello Marucci sets up a fire prevention bureau at once.

Beedle served one month as a probationary fireman after appointment from a civil service examination list before entering the Army two years ago. He previously had worked six months in the fire department without civil service status.

Councilman William Franchini, who voted against the plan, declared, "It's a matter of dollars and cents with me." He argued that either (1) Jerry Cahill, added to the fire department since Beedle left, should be "bumped" to make room for the returning veteran, or (2) Beedle should be transferred to the police department until the city's second firehouse is completed—which Franchini estimated will be a year away.

City Manager Brewer said neither Fire Chief Marucci nor Police Chief Donald T. Wood favored the idea of temporary transfer of Beedle to the police department, although Beedle has had eight months' experience in the county sheriff's office. (Incidentally, Beedle is a champion weight-lifter.)

Brewer said Chief Marucci is eager to get the fire prevention bureau started and has arranged to have Asst. Fire Chief William M. Sousa, who will head the bureau, to go to Santa Rosa for special training with the fire prevention bureau there.

The city manager said he envisions an inspection of every property in the city for fire hazards—a project he estimated would take two years. Two or three men with a fire truck would spend half of each day on the survey, he said. The truck would be radio-equipped so it could respond promptly to fire calls.

Beedle's salary was fixed at $395 a month, which is $3 more than he received before entering the Army because the scale for probationary firemen has since been increased by that amount.

The finance committee of the Augmented Committee on School District Organization studying possible unification of the Tamalpais Union High School District met Tuesday night for an organizational session.

Chairman William Cassidy said the committee surveyed materials available for its study of the financial aspect of unification.

14 Appointed To Assist With Hub Master Plan

The San Anselmo City Council early today named 14 members to a committee to work with consultant James M. Campbell in drawing up the city's master plan.

A. Von Rotz, ex-mayor and present chamber of commerce president, was named last week to chairman the committee.

Three of those named to the committee on suggestion of Von Rotz are not San Anselmo residents, although they are in business in the Hub City.

Von Rotz's choices, all approved by the council, are: Eugene A. Ostaggi of Ross, Sidney Braverman of San Rafael, A. N. Nipper, William Kapranos, Dr. L. A. Remy, William J. Watt, Edward C. Gates, David G. Cohn of Ross and Homer C. Rickards.

Councilman Jordan L. Martinelli Jr. named Charles Morale and Roy Franchini.

Councilman Carleton G. E. Little named E. H. Rouse and John Neff Carr.

Mayor Arthur W. Smith named Mrs. Edris Smith, who had written him asking that she be named to serve on the committee—and who apparently will be its only woman member.

The council made it plain that additional committee members may be added.

Oklahoma has 27 Indian reservations.

Mortality Rate Runs High On New Year's Resolutions

The spirit is willing, but the flesh is apt to get weak along about this time in the first month of the New Year. By this time, the mortality becomes heavy on our New Year's resolutions. And none is heavier than the one to take off some weight. (Remember?)

Everyone agrees that persons who are too fat, about a fourth of us, run more risk of death than if we'd take off a little. But this brings up two complex questions: 1—Just how fat is too fat? and 2—What's the best way to take it off?

Until recently the second question seemed easily answered: Exercise by placing two hands firmly against the edge of the dining room table and push back your chair; eat less, especially fats.

Now authorities warn us it's not that simple. For one thing, there's fat and then there's fat. Animal fats are thought more the villain than non-animal ones in producing cholesterol that thickens artery walls.

But even here there is a doubt. Perhaps that extra weight is caused by something amiss in the individual's system, like faulty metabolism that keeps any fat from being absorbed.

Besides, major sources of animal fat—milk, butter, fish oils, certain meats—are highly nutritive. And malnutrition can be as harmful as obesity, if not more so.

For some people, too, it's more than sheer gluttony that causes the over eating. Perhaps it's emotional maladjustment, real troubles, boredom, or maybe just a habit.

One thing is for sure: It will take more than New Year's resolutions, faddy diets, anti-weight pills and drugs, or devices to roll fat away to get that avoirdupois down. Better let your doctor be your guide.

Oh, but what the heck—let's have another piece of pie—and add another scoop of ice cream, will you please?

WHERE'S YOUR TREASURE?

A Florida vacation plus a lifetime savings went up in smoke for one couple in Jacksonville recently.

Just two weeks before the calamity, they had used their nest egg to purchase a trailer for $2,500.

They still had $8,000 left and decided the safest place to hide the currency was in "their home on wheels."

To their horror, something went wrong with the gas refrigerator and flames destroyed the trailer and everything in it.

Despite the most careful precautions, our earthly riches can be lost by fire, theft, inflation, deflation, war or any unexpected disaster.

With the spiritual treasures of God, there are no such risks. No one can rob us of them, and their value never wavers in fair weather or foul.

Reflect frequently on the profound warning and comforting assurance of the Master:

"Lay not up to yourselves treasures on earth: where the rust and moth consume, and where thieves break through and steal. But lay up to yourselves treasures in Heaven: where neither the rust nor moth doth consume, and where thieves do not break through, nor steal."

(Matthew 6:19-20)

Help me, O Jesus, to appreciate and seek the treasures which endure for all eternity.

Brown Sailing Tight Ship Of State In Sacramento

By JERRY REYNOLDS

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown, in his first few weeks in office, has organized his staff and set up a tight ship that would make the cruelest sea captain envious.

Though not oiled to the ultimate yet, Brown's staff fast is falling into smooth operation. His decision to let his administration rise or fall by the decisions made by himself and by closest advisers already has been initiated in the form of an official order.

BROWN ORDERED the heads of California's departments, commissions and agencies to tighten their financial belts and to stop public airing of opinions which are not first cleared by the governor.

On the economy suggestion, Brown asked each department to try to cut its spending by about five million dollars between now and the end of the fiscal year June 30.

As to policy questions, he asked that department heads clear statements with him before airing them to the public or the legislature so that the administration can present a unified position.

Neither shall any department back or initiate legislation without first clearing it with the governor's office.

BROWN'S FIRM HAND also is in evidence in the Legislature. His legislative program especially stands out, each bill carrying the special flag indicating the bill was introduced "at the request of the governor."

He wasted no time in getting his legislative program on deck for action. In the first two weeks of the session, seven measures were introduced to carry out the Democratic governor's plan for "responsible liberalism."

Some legislators were known to be slightly rankled because of working years on special legislation only to have Brown stamp his approval on it thus taking credit for his administration. Other legislators were reported to have complained that they would not be appointed to the lower house revenue and tax committee because they refused to commit themselves to vote for Brown's tax program in committee.

But Assemblyman Thomas MacBride (D-Sacramento), chairman of the committee, and Assembly speaker Ralph Brown (D-Modesto), who appoints the members, both denied asking for any such commitment.

ON THE SENATE SIDE, Sen. Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno), president pro tempore of the senate, said he would differ with Brown on the abolition of cross-filing. And senate dean James J. McBride (D-Ventura) said the senate revenue and tax committee was stacked with anti-tax senators who would vote down Brown's program.

Brown's program so far includes:

AB91 by assemblyman William Byron Rumford (D-Berkeley) would create a fair employment practices commission to prevent discrimination in hiring.

SB33 by Sen. Richard Richards (D-Los Angeles) sets up the office of consumer counsel to advise the governor on consumer interests.

SB43 by Sen. James Cobey (D-Merced) creates an economic development agency to promote business and industry in California.

AB288 by Assemblyman Augustus F. Hawkins (D-Los Angeles) would extend the state medical care program to disabled aid recipients and set aside six dollars a month for their care.

AB118 by assemblyman William A. Munnell (D-Los Angeles) would abolish cross-filing in primary elections.

AB320 by assemblyman Gordon H. Winton Jr. (D-Merced) sets up a purity of elections code to regulate campaign money and reporting.

AB350 by assemblyman Robert W. Crown (D-Oakland) to permit vote counting in all counties by electronics.

Need UN Steps To Stop Castro

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

I would like to raise my voice on behalf of the present happenings in Cuba: a few days ago, when I saw in the daily papers and television the Cubans of San Francisco, I felt relieved and joy with those people, although I have no connections whatsoever with Cuba or Cubans for that matter; for they rejoiced the fall of a dictator, namely Batista.

However the feeling of joy has turned into horror when it was learned with what kind of bestiality the "LIBERATORS" took and still take hourly revenge on their fellow citizens. I really do think that Cuba has fallen from "Charryda to Scylla."

The happenings in Cuba remind me sadly of another European dictator whose axiom was: "Those Who Are Not For Me Are Against Me," and shot, tortured and burned almost 6,000,000 unfortunate people.

Is the world and the Catholic church to stand idly by, without interfering and watch yet another massacre of the innocent?

It is my sincere hope that the United Nations will, soon take adequate steps to stop the new dictator of that unfortunate island, who calls himself proudly Fidel Castro.

Hospitals Refute Poor Impression

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

We of the Marin County Hospital Council are much concerned about the article that appeared in last night's Independent (January 19) commenting on the current article in Look Magazine which cites investigation of hospital procedures by the California Medical Society. It refers to the survey that received heavy press coverage in August, 1958.

This investigation was instigated because of questionable practices in only three hospitals in the state. To have the general public feel "Hospitals can make you sick" as per your heading is completely misleading as far as almost 99% of California hospital are concerned.

We in Marin take pride in the fact that all three hospitals pass the most rigid tests for good hospital care. Every precaution is taken to make sure that the patient in any of our three general hospitals has the best possible chance for recovery.

The paragraph which points out that "hospitals are run for the benefit of nurses and doctors with patient's needs coming last" is particularly damaging and it seems to us entirely unnecessary in view of the fact that Marin County does provide such superior medical care. The public can be assured that in Marin County there are active committees on all the hospital staffs and of the Marin County Medical Society who continually review care given by the hospitals and medical staffs.

Stories like this which seemingly include all hospitals without mentioning the fact that only three of about 500 hospitals in California caused the confidential study to be made create an unjustified lack of faith in our local institutions.

We cannot believe this was your intention and so will appreciate your giving us the space to refute this poor impression since Marin County Hospitals are operated for the benefit of the patients.

Wanted: An Angel For Senior Citizens

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

It was a heartwarming thrill to read your editorial of Jan. 7, describing the generous gift made by the wonderful Freitas family of a large and valuable section of the Freitas Home Ranch to the Roman Catholic Church for religious and educational purposes.

Marin County has been enriched socially, politically and economically for many years last past by members of the Freitas family, and now, they have made a more permanent and lasting contribution to the well being of the county by giving extended permanence to religion and education, the most important components of a modern society operating under free enterprise.

Congratulations to these forward looking people, and many thanks from a member of the community that will share a measure of this gift and its value to all of us. The writer would commend this type of dedication to other persons of adequate substance in our county. I cannot help but hope that some other generous persons will step forward and donate in this manner property which might be adequate for the home of Senior Citizens of Marin County.

I can see a great home and recreational center, dedicated by some generous person or persons for the enjoyment, encouragement and friendship of Senior Citizens who have arrived at that period in their lives when, free from life's labor, they should know the joy and happiness of contented living.

Committee On Racial Discrimination Faces Difficult Task Getting Facts

FACTS ABOUT equality or inequality of house hunters when they try to buy in Marin County are not too easy to come by.

A committee of 11 — of which only two are members of minority races — has been appointed by the County Board of Supervisors to find out just what the facts are. The committee has no power of subpoena and must rely on volunteered information.

It has got a notable lack of cooperation from Marin real estate brokers. A letter sent to them last October asking for anonymous statements on availability of housing for members of minority races has so far elicited only six replies.

This week, though, three Negro couples wrote to the Marin County Committee on Racial Discrimination with stories of their attempts to buy houses in Marin County. One couple is still living in Marin City. Another found a house in Richmond and a third moved to San Francisco. They reported subtle and not-too-subtle rebuffs when they tried to find a house in Marin County.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cluff of Marin City (the couple that is still there) told of their attempt to buy a house in Alto next-door to a Caucasian friend of theirs.

THEY WENT to a Tiburon boulevard real estate office and the real estate broker admitted he did not want to sell them the house because he once got into trouble for selling a house to a Caucasian man who had a Chinese wife. However, the broker did give the Cluffs the telephone number of the owner of the house.

The Cluffs talked to the owner's son who said it made no difference that they were Negro and that he would talk to his father when he came home. Later that evening the Cluffs talked to him again, and he said his father objected and would not sell to Negroes because he had other property in the county.

"We had offered $14,500 cash," the Cluffs wrote. "We were told later that the house sold for $13,500."

ALTOGETHER 14 Marin real estate brokers were mentioned by name in reports of racial discrimination. The committee wrote and asked them to tell their side of the story. Not one of them replied to the letter or showed up at this week's meeting.

Lloyd Grandi, a real estate broker himself and chairman of the committee, said one of the 14 telephoned him and asked: "What shall I do?" Grandi said he replied: "There's only one thing to do — come and state your case." He looked out at the audience of some 50 persons and reported "he's not here tonight."

On the suggestion of Dr. Paul F. O'Rourke of Novato, another committee member, it was decided to send out a new batch of letters to subdivision developers and real estate brokers.

THOSE WHO reply that they are willing to sell to members of minority races on an equal basis with anyone else will be listed in a report to the county supervisors, who are expected to "make public" the report.

One may wonder what effect all this will have, even if it is proven beyond any doubt that discrimination is rampant in Marin.

According to the committee's letter of last October to real estate brokers, "the Supervisors have indicated that the committee's conclusions will be instrumental in determining future legislation in the field of equal opportunity in the county."

Mikoyan Challenged On Inaccurate Statements Repeated Over U.S.

WASHINGTON — Courtesy certainly does not mean that the intellectual fun and games, which Anastas Mikoyan has played on his speaking and press-conference tour of the United States, have to go unanswered.

He has, as I see it, made a whole series of mis-statements, false statements, and misleading statements. I am not in the least suggesting that he should not make them. Mr. Mikoyan should enjoy free speech in the United States even if Mr. Pasternak cannot enjoy free speech in the Soviet Union. We want more visits from more Soviets who want to come, look, listen — and speak their minds to us. I am only saying that we do not need to let Mr. Mikoyan's not very bon mots lie around unchanged.

Let's look at — and behind — a few of them.

MIKOYAN STATEMENT — He has continuously told businessmen that the U.S. restrictions on selling strategic materials to Russia are so extreme and capricious that they virtually close off all legitimate trade. "Why," he said, "the government won't even let you sell toothpaste, chewing gum, and laxatives."

THE ANSWER — All goods can be sold to the Soviets which would not build their war potential. There is rarely any doubt about what items can be exported. They are explicitly detailed in the Commerce Department's "general license" list and, our visitor to the contrary, they do not include toothpaste nor chewing gum nor laxatives. Obviously Mr. Mikoyan thought that the best prospect of discrediting the strategic restrictions on Soviet trade was to try to make the whole thing sound ridiculous and therefore he did not find it useful to speak the facts.

MIKOYAN STATEMENT — To the question, "Who started the cold war?" a faithful summary of Mr. Mikoyan's reply is: You made some mistakes. We made some mistakes; no doubt Solomon would split it down the middle.

THE ANSWER — If Mr. Mikoyan would say that at home, if the Soviet Press would print such a statement by the First Deputy Premier in the Soviet Union, if the Moscow radio would put that on its air waves — that would be something.

The Soviet press is covering Mr. Mikoyan admirably and regularly but for some reason this statement, which he is making to his American audiences, is not allowed to appear in the Soviet newspapers. It is contrary to Soviet policy, cannot be allowed to appear in the Soviet Union, and is designed only for export to placate and soften American public opinion. When the Kremlin lets it appear in the Soviet Union, we can then believe that the Soviets are at last ready to admit that they are partly to blame.

To us that sounds like an easy and not very large admission but, remember, that the Kremlin's recent tirade against Yugoslavia came because Tito remarked that Moscow must share the responsibility for the cold war!

MIKOYAN STATEMENT — We are suspicious of the U.S. because we are surrounded by our military bases and your guns are pointed at us.

THE ANSWER — There were no U. S., no NATO bases near the Soviet Union before the Soviets tried to drag Greece and Turkey behind the Iron Curtain, before the Soviet coup in Czechoslovakia, before the Soviet division of Germany, before the Soviet absorption of all the Baltic states, before the Soviet subjugation of all Eastern Europe, before the Soviet-sponsored war in Korea.

Bolsa Avenue Assessment Plan Protested

Hearing Set Feb. 4 On Proposal For 'Forced' District

Some 50 Mill Valley residents attended last night's city council meeting to protest the creation of a "forced" assessment district for paving Bolsa Avenue.

The matter had been simmering for many months after a petition had been submitted to the council asking for the work. Signers of the petition represented less than the total of property owners involved—but owners of only 51 per cent of the land involved can "force" an assessment district. Last night's protestants heard involved explanations from City Engineer Albert H. Siemer and special attorney Eugene Sturgis on the operations of the district.

COST QUERIES
'Protestants declared they wanted some indication of the amounts of money which would be required before deciding whether they would proceed with the improvement.

A formal hearing on the matter has been set for Feb. 4. Siemer agreed to get individual property assessments to City Manager A. E. Almerants prior to Jan. 27, with the understanding that variations of up to $100 were possible when final costs are determined.

The council agreed 4-0 to this procedure, Councilman Elizabeth Rodman abstaining.

GOLF CLUB TAX
Recreation activities also came in for lengthy discussion last night.

Almerants informed the council that professional Malcolm Brown at the city-owned golf course is being pressed by the county for $326, representing a "possessory interest" tax for 1956-57-58. "Mill Valley may be the first city to find itself in the position of paying, perhaps indirectly, a possessory tax to the county," he said.

The question of whether the obligation should be paid by Brown or the city resulted in a compromise. The council agreed to foot half the bill by increasing Brown's $400 monthly salary to $432 for five months.

Brown complained that "we didn't know about this when my contract was drawn in 1954 or we would have provided for it." But Almerants noted that in 1957 the course was closed on Mondays during standard time, which had the effect of a pay raise for Brown.

OTHER ACTIONS

The council also:
1. Approved 3-2, councilmen Joseph E. Sheeks and George Blackwell dissenting, payment of $50 monthly for the balance of the school year for the salary of a director for an after-school recreation program.

2. Reappointed Dr. Charles P. Guichard and William Lovorn to the parks and recreation commission.

3. Confirmed appointment of Mrs. Lenore Collor by Mayor Robert D. Huber as a member of the parks and recreation commission, succeeding George E. Dundas, resigned.

4. Confirmed the action of Almerants in appointing Jacques J. Nader as custodian-caterer of the golf clubhouse.

5. Postponed action on a request from Dr. P. R. Danford, chairman of the adult committee of the Mill Valley Teen-agers Assn., for $50 monthly for a director. The council wants detailed information on the group's plans and functions.

6. Examined a presentation by Herman Hein, chairman of the Miller avenue planting committee, for beautification of the area between Evergreen avenue and the high school. Hein's plan envisions a center boardwalk, flanked by shrubs and trees leaving ample parking space. It was referred to Siemer for cost estimates.

7. Carried over until the next meeting conclusion of an agreement among the city, county and Tamalpais High School District on removal of Northwestern Pacific rails for the extension of Miller avenue.

8. Approved a $750 fee to City Atty. Thomas C. Nelson for special legal services rendered in enforcing the city sign ordinance, and heard Almerants report there were still 11 violators of the ordinance. Nelson was instructed to bring legal action against them after sending a warning letter.

9. Received from Almerants a summary of 123 accomplishments by the city administration during 1958.

Indecent Exposure Suspect Jailed

Benson Joe Martin, 24, of 21 Floribel avenue, San Anselmo, was booked yesterday at the county jail on a charge of indecent exposure to a woman clerk at Sprouse Reitz store in San Anselmo on Jan. 7.

Martin admitted the offense, reported Sam N. Serio, San Anselmo assistant police chief. He was recognized when he returned yesterday afternoon to make a small purchase at the same store.

Transit Segregation Dies Quietly In Atlanta

ATLANTA, Ga. (UPI)—Segregated seating on Atlanta's transit system is dying a peaceful death.

Negroes sat in forward seats on a number of trolleys yesterday, putting into practice for the first time a federal judge's decree that long-traditional separate seating must stop. Transit officials and police reported no disturbance.

The custom of many years was observed on a majority of the trolleys, however, with Negroes taking seats from the rear.

No actual instance of Negroes sitting beside white persons was reported, although some Negro riders sat up front and whites were seated behind them.

Leaders of the "Love, Law and Liberation Movement," organized to implement the court decree handed down Jan. 9, requested in a meeting Tuesday night that Negro men refrain from sitting beside white women.

Ghilotti Wants Extra Pay For Parking Lot Job

Ghilotti Brothers, who installed the two off-street parking lots on San Rafael's Third street last year, want the city to pay $2,691 in added cost incurred when the contractor ran into unexpected soft ground at the Third and Loutens place lot.

City Atty. Albert E. Bagshaw said the contractor took the chance when he bid for the job and thus is entitled to no extra pay.

Mario Ghilotti told the city council Monday night he had found sawdust and mud, which were unforeseen. These had to be removed and replaced with good subsoil. Ghilotti said it has always been his experience that when a contractor runs into something unexpected, the extra cost is paid to him.

The council referred the matter to City Attorney Bagshaw, who said he would review the case and present his findings at the next meeting. If the council wants to pay on the basis it is settling a disputed claim, then the city attorney will probably find it is legal. But if the council wants to know whether it has any legal responsibility to pay the extra cost at all, then, Bagshaw said, he wants time to review the question.

Meeting To Air Marin City Plan

The Marin City master plan and James H. Scheuer's controversial alternate Marin City development plan will be discussed Monday at an 8 p.m. informational meeting at the Unitarian Church of Marin office, 805 Fifth avenue, San Rafael.

The two plans will be explained by representatives of the county planning department and county redevelopment agency. A question period will follow, with Mrs. P. K. Gilman as moderator. Mrs. Gilman is chairman of the Unitarian Service Committee, which is sponsoring the meeting.

County Must Pay 75% Of Rail Signal Costs

The state Public Utilities Commission has ordered the Northwestern Pacific Railroad to install wig-wag warning signals at grade crossings in Novato and Tiburon, with the County of Marin required to bear 75 per cent of the cost and the NWP the balance.

In an order handed down Tuesday, the PUC said flashing light signals must be installed within nine months at crossings on Olive Street and Atherton avenue in Novato and San Rafael avenue in Tiburon.

At a PUC hearing in San Rafael last fall, the county requested an order directing the installations and requested 50-50 cost split with the railroad. NWP attorneys argued successfully for a 75-25 per cent division of costs, with the railroad paying the smaller share.

The three signals will cost about $20,000 to install.

49ers Stock Up On Beefy Linemen At Player Draft

TWO MARIN STARS ON NORTH SHRINE SQUAD

Marin County will be represented by its two top high school players in next summer's North-South football classic in Los Angeles, it was announced today.

They are end Ron Snidow, 6-foot-2, 205-pound star of San Rafael High's championship team and quarterback Jack Sparrow, 6-4, 185, of Novato's once-beaten powerhouse of the 1958 season.

They were among 25 outstanding senior players picked on the North team by coaches and sports writers in the area.

The annual North-South game is scheduled Aug. 7.

Mantle Refuses Contract; 'I Won't Take A Pay Cut'

Mickey Mantle, the Yankees' famed long-range bomber, fired a hot potato from Dallas, Tex., to New York today—and dropped it right in the middle of General Manager George Weiss' lap.

Catholic High Downs Novato

Marin Catholic's basketball team, which defeated Novato High 46-29 in their first game, had to work much harder for victory yesterday. The Catholic cagers broke a 41-41 tie with six seconds to go to achieve a 45-41 win.

The game was played on the court at Novato high.

Novato led 13-7 at the end of the first quarter, trailed 19-22 at the half, and was in the lead, 33-32, at the end of the third quarter in a game that was nip and tuck all the way.

Coach Fielding Reese of Novato, praising his "greatly improved" team, pointed out that the Novato five was playing without guard Pete Ferrarese, out with a chipped ankle bone. Forward George Gnos is handicapped with an ankle sprain, Reese said.

"Just say I'm dissatisfied, period," growled the 27-year-old home run king after announcing that he has returned his unsigned contract to the Yankees. "You can add that I'll never take a pay cut. I'm planning on a raise."

The size of the pay cut offered Mantle, who earned an estimated $75,000 last season, ranged from a "token cut" of $3,000 to a huge bite of $15,000. Weiss did not say whether Mantle would be offered a cut in his press conference Tuesday, but he did say a few of the world champions would be unpleasantly surprised when they saw their contracts.

Mantle's average in 1958 fell off to .304 compared to his .365 of 1957, but he led the league with 42 homers, knocked in 97 runs and can argue he is the American League's No. 1 drawing card both at home and on the road.

LAKERS, ROYALS SET S. F. TILT

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Minneapolis Lakers will play the Cincinnati Royals at the Cow Palace Feb. 11 in a regular National Basketball Assn. game, promoter Fred Scolari announced yesterday.

Scolari promoted the Jan. 11 game between the Lakers and the Boston Celtics, which drew more than 13,000 fans to the Cow Palace.

The promoter said he is trying to line up on the same Feb. 11 bill a game between basketball teams representing the San Francisco 49ers and Los Angeles Rams.

BASILIO OUT?

Sugar Wants Title Fight With Moore

NEW YORK (UPI)—Sugar Ray Robinson announced unexpectedly today, "I want to fight Archie Moore instead of Carmen Basilio."

The 38-year-old middleweight champion tossed that bomb into Cauliflower Canyon just a few hours before his scheduled conference with Truman Gibson of the IBC about a return defense against Basilio.

"I want to fight Moore because he's the hottest attraction in boxing right now," Robinson explained. "And I won't be happy till I win the light-heavyweight crown—my third."

Sugar Ray was welterweight champion before he won the middleweight title. He tried to take the light-heavy crown from Joey Maxim on June 25, 1952, but was overcome by the 104 degree heat in Yankee Stadium and lost on a 14th-round technical knockout.

BUILD UP WEIGHT Robinson said "I can build up to about 163 pounds for a Moore fight; Archie, of course, would have to pare down to the 175-pound limit to defend his title. No, my title wouldn't be at stake."

Sugar Ray was asked if he had a return-bout contract with Basilio before their March 25th bout at the Chicago Stadium, where Ray recaptured the 160-pound crown from Carmen.

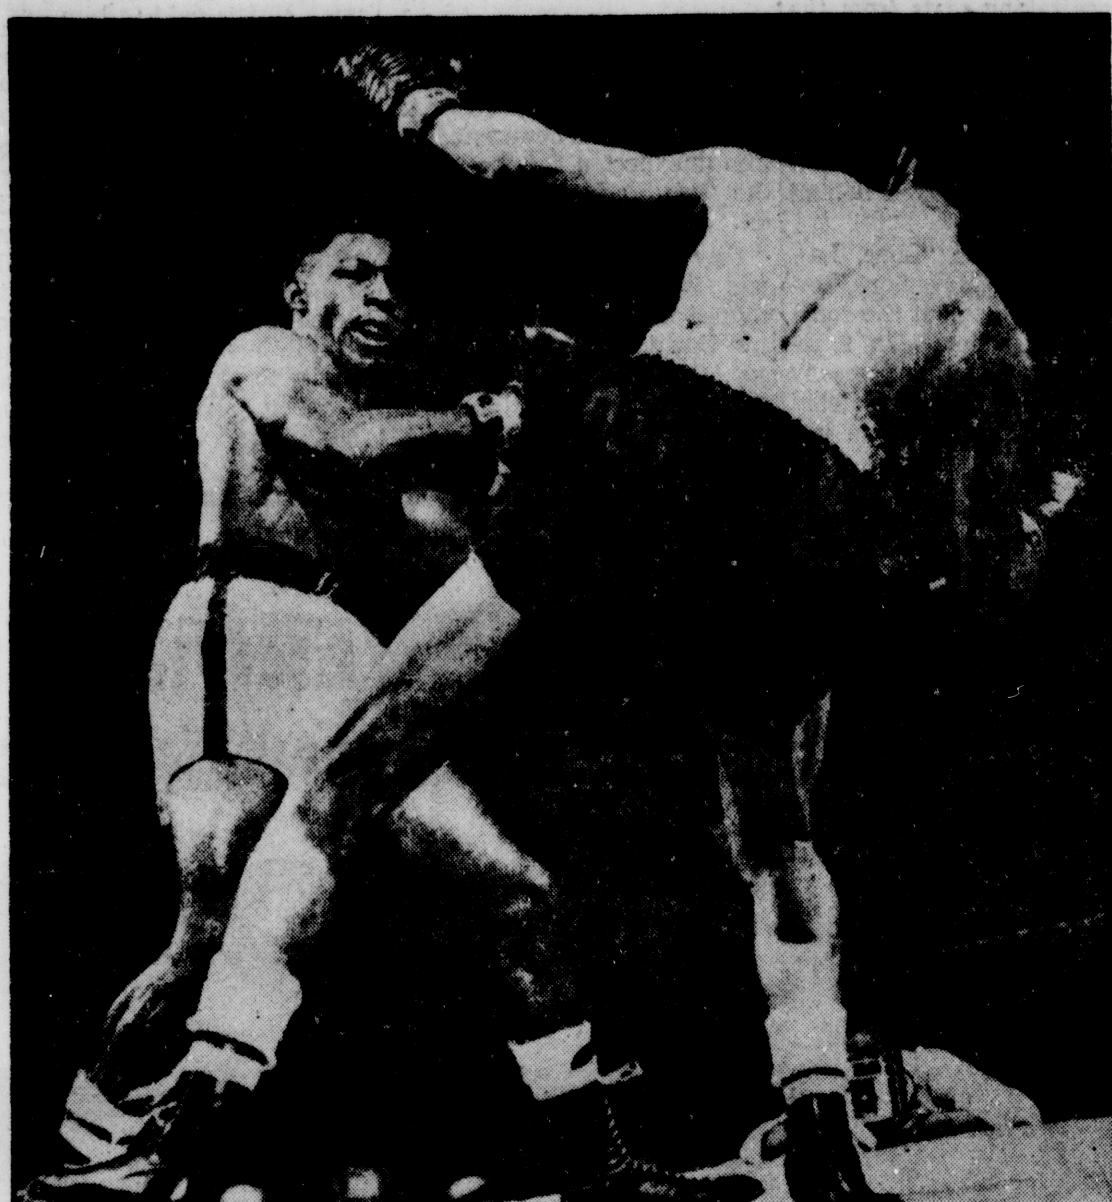

"No, sir," said Ray, "there was no return contract."

When Gibson was told of Robinson's statement, he declared, "Say! That's the first I heard of it. It's really something to think about, isn't it?"

Jack Kearns, manager of 42-or-45-year-old Moore, almost did a buck-and-wing. He spouted: "That's great. That's the hottest match in the world today—the two old masters—Moore and Robinson, in a title fight. That's got everything—a million-dollar match."

Benefit Slated For Marin Skier; Slalom Races Set For Novices

There will be a party and auction of donated ski equipment at Beacon Hill Lodge on Highway 40 Sunday, proceeds of which will go toward medical expenses of volunteer ski patrolman John Bishop of San Rafael. Bishop was seriously injured at Squaw Valley when he jumped off the chair lift to answer a false cry for help from a supposedly injured skier.

Sunday Heavenly Valley will stage the first of a series of weekly guest slalom races for novice skiers who have never competed in a formal race. Ski school director Eric Sailer will set the course and give advice to the entrants. Weekly winners will receive pins and become eligible to vie for the perpetual trophy to be awarded April 12 to the seasonal champion.

WHILE MANY resorts were hurt by the recent rains which melted most of the snow pack, there was good skiing on corn snow under a summer sun at Echo Summit Ski Area on Highway 50 last weekend. And the best part about driving up Highway 50 is the fact that there are no buses or trucks to cope with as on Highway 40.

KQED, Channel 9, will present the second in a series of ski programs, "Ski Trails," Thursday evening at 9:30. Dodge Ridge will be one of three ski areas featured on the program along with BASF Chairman Dave Barr.

Godih Scores Upset Win Over Perkins

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lahouari Godih of Algeria is very well pleased with this nation's capital after jabbing out a mild upset victory over young Eddie Perkins.

Perkins, the Chicago lad who lost a split decision to Godih here last night, wants no more of Washington.

Perkins, his lightweight ambitions at least temporarily set back, sat glumly in his dressing room with an ice pack soothing his neck after losing the nationally televised 10-rounder. His manager, Frank Tomaso, was on foot and yelling.

Godih, who won his first bout in the United States in the same Capitol Arena ring last April, had been voted a 99-96 edge on points by Judge Harry Volkman and a 97-95 winner by Judge Joe Buns.

FAVOR PERKINS Only Referee Charley Reynolds among the officials went for Perkins, 95-93. The Associated Press had Perkins ahead, 95-92.

Scoring was under the 10-point-must system, with the winner of a round getting 10 points and the loser nine or fewer.

"That guy Volkman gave my kid one round," Tomaso wailed. "I want to take this up with the boxing commission."

As it happened, Volkman stopped by Perkins' cramped quarters to pick up his coat and calmly introduced himself.

While Tomaso voiced his low opinion of officiating in Washington and promised never to return, Volkman snapped: "I was probably in the fight business when you wore short pants." He slammed the door on his way out.

Perkins occasionally jabbed Godih with single shots to the head. But Godih kept his shorter opponent off with a tireless left jab.

We Need Big Horses To Match Colts—Hickey

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Fans of the San Francisco 49ers and Los Angeles Rams looked at their teams' draft picks in bafflement and hope today.

The 12 National Football League teams completed the fifth through 30th rounds of player drafting yesterday. The first four rounds were chosen last November.

Familiar names were few and far between in yesterday's picks by the two west coast clubs, but as any pro filbert knows, many of the greatest pro stars were similarly unknown to most fans before they were pin-pointed by the pro club's far-flung scouting system.

Names like John Unitas, Joe Perry, Willie Galimore and Tank Younger spring to mind. For the 49ers, the emphasis was clearly on size. Coach Red Hickey said "we were looking for big men who will grow bigger. We needed big horses who could match those Baltimore Colts."

San Francisco's first three choices were tackle, Don Rogers of South Carolina, 250, and Tony Bavaro of Holy Cross, 240. Next came Dan Colchico, a 220-pound San Jose State end who still has a year of eligibility for the Spartans.

San Francisco also selected a pair of 260-pound linemen last November. These were Monte Clark of USC and Dan James of Ohio State. San Francisco may indeed have picked up a few big horses to match those overgrown Colts.

The 49ers' other picks last November included defensive back possibilities Dave Baker of Oklahoma and Ed Dove of Colorado and All-American linebacker Bob Harrison of Oklahoma.

San Francisco also grabbed Nore Dame tackle Bronko Nagurski Jr. yesterday, son of the former Minnesota and Chicago Bear immortal. Young Nagurski tips the scales at 215.

RAMS LIKE SPEED The Rams seemed to lean more toward speed than beef in their picks. They chose 10 ends in their 36 draftees.

Los Angeles had earned nine choices in last November's first four rounds. Top picks then included halfback Dick Bass of College of Pacific, who will play for the Tigers one more year, and three Baylor Bears, tackle Paul Dickson, quarterback Buddy Humphrey and fullback Larry Hickman.

Western fans glumly eyed the draftee lists and conceded that 1958 just wasn't the coast's year in collegiate football.

For instance, Joe Kapp, who almost single-handedly led California into the Rose Bowl, was by-passed 208 times before Washington Redskins chose him in the 18th round.

Apparently the pro clubs feared that Kapp, who did a little bit of everything for the Bears, was not sufficiently expert in any one phase of the game to make good in the pro ranks.

MarVel, St. Rita's Score Cage Wins

MarVel A. C. defeated the Continentals, 40-24 and St. Rita's defeated the Valley Raiders, 35-19 in the San Rafael Youth Basketball League's 18 and under division this week.

Dave Zappettini led the MarVel attack with 11 points and Jerry Eckman scored 11 points for the Continentals.

Fred Pfeffer and Ken Wray each scored 8 points for the Valley Raiders, while John Osborn was high for St. Rita's with 9 points.

In Fresno, Van Galder said, "Yes, we accepted and we'll leave for Madison sometime before spring football starts."

Hurling Still Big Problem—Rigney

By BILL RIGNEY
(Manager, San Francisco Giants)

WALNUT CREEK (UPI)—I'm still not doing any predicting even if we did finish third last year after a lot of people had us down for fifth or sixth. Let's just say I think we have a definite chance of being a contender.

But here's one thing I really want to get across. I don't buy any of this talk about "sophomore jinxes" and am looking for even better years from last year's key rookies—first baseman Orlando Cepeda, catcher Bob Schmidt and third baseman Jim Davenport.

Cepeda, who won the Rookie of the Year award recently, ought to improve over his 1958 showing. He will be an outstanding player for a long time.

Pitching is our biggest problem. All managers hope to find a good pitcher in their Christmas sock, but that doesn't mean I'm exactly upset over our present staff. I'm looking for Jack Sanford, whom we obtained from the Phillies, and Johnny Antonelli to work about 250 innings apiece next season. Why not? Both are big, strong men at the top of their form.

TAKE CHARGE GUY

John looked fine when I saw him recently in Washington. He figures to be the take-charge guy of our staff—the leader. Sanford slipped to 10-13 last year at Philadelphia after his big debut (19-8) in 1957, but I think we are lugging around too much poundage from the banquet circuit. He'll be slimmer this season and sharp again.

If Mike McCormick, a left-hander like Antonelli, can pick up a little, he might figure as our number three starter. And let's not overlook a guy named Stu Miller who led the league in earned run averages last year. They might comprise our big four.

Our second line pitching was not good last year. We need somebody to work the middle innings. Paul Giel looks like he has learned enough now to be effective there. Curt Barclay's sore arm seems okay again. John Fitzgerald (of Brooklyn) and Dom Zanni (of Rockville Centre, L.I.) also might figure as good middle men.

Billy Muffett, whom we got from the Cardinals, probably will handle the finishing-up job along with Al Worthington.

FINE OUTFIELD

Let's take a look at the outfield. With Jackie Brandt in left, Willie Mays in center and either Felipe Alou or Willie Kirkland in right we could have a real exciting one to watch. They all can streak for that ball and have fine arms.

Mays? He lost the batting title to Richie Ashburn by three points and very well could win it this time.

One question I hear a lot is "what are you going to do about getting a second baseman who can hit?" Well, sir, we have one. His name is Daryl Spencer, our shortstop, who also can handle the second base spot. I'm figuring to spot him there and let Andre Rodgers, the "big guy" go in at short.

Andre won the Pacific Coast League batting title with a .354 last season and I think now is ready to hit big league pitching. If he can hit about .285 for us and come up with that long ball, our attack will be better than last year and the defense just as good.

Another question I often hear is "how about more sock at third?" I think we are solid there. Davenport knows how to make the big play. And his hitting will get better.

Schmidt, as I said, should improve and we now have a good left-handed hitting catcher to spell him in Hobie Landrith, whom we got from the Cards with Muffett.

Rigney's sailing plans as of this date call for him leaving for Phoenix Feb. 14 to start all over what he began last year... search of a pennant.

Arizona Football Mentor Resigns

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—After two dismal seasons, Ed Doherty is no longer head football coach at the University of Arizona.

Doherty resigned yesterday, citing personal reasons. Dr. Richard A. Harvill, university president, accepted the resignation, effective June 30, with regrets.

In his two seasons, Doherty's record was four victories, 15 losses and one tie. No successor was named.

Buist Heads Yacht Club

GLENN HAYWOOD (above) will serve as master of ceremonies Saturday night at the annual Marin Rod and Gun Club stag banquet at Bermuda Palms Hotel, San Rafael. The versatile Haywood combines comedy with slight of hand with the emphasis on audience participation. He also turns out to be quite a ventriloquist. MRGC officials have promised a top-notch vaudeville for the expected crowd of 800 men. Tickets are on sale at sports shops in Novato and San Rafael.

Newly elected commodore of the Corinthian Yacht Club is Ronnie Buist of 20 Mara Vista Court, Tiburon.

Buist skippers the 33-foot sloop, El Sueno, and has been sailing the Bay Area waters for more than 15 years.

He is the proprietor of Ronnie's Camera Shop at 115 West Portal avenue in San Francisco. The yachtman's family provides him with "an all-girl crew," consisting of his wife, Leona, and daughters Anne, 13, Bobbie Lea, 5, and Ronni Lea, 3.

Elected to serve with Buist are Robert Evans, vice commodore and secretary; Norman Louvau, retiring commodore, who will act as rear commodore; Martin Matosich, treasurer; and Harry Jones, Port Captain. Directors are Jim Rear, Edgar McHugh and Bill Spindler.

The BULLPEN

With JOHN J. CONNOLLY

Inter-League Trading Would Help Balance American, National Loops

The yarn was included in a roundup story of last month's major league meeting.

It told how the American and National leagues planned an inter-league trading period after the World Series and before the opening of the major league meeting.

As I reflect on that plan, it suddenly dawns upon me that here is an epic story. It could mean the balancing of the American and the National leagues, so that for once and for all people wouldn't be able to say that one circuit outclassed the other.

But as I say, let us reflect... what really does it mean?

It is such a relief to think that Casey Stengel, manager of the New York Yankees might trade one of his players to the National League without that traded player making a sucker out of Casey.

The story means that if Stengel had a second sacker like Billy Martin he wanted to get rid of, he could trade him to the S.F. Giants, help the Giants without actually having Martin hurt the Yankees.

WHAT A GREAT thing that would be for organized baseball.

As matters now stand, an American League manager can ask for waivers on any of his players. But he must be prepared to allow them to go to some other American League club. And that club might just be the club that the following year, using the former traded player, could knock the manager who traded the player in to oblivion.

But under the present plan, the American League club that has a player the manager doesn't particularly like, could be sold to a National League club for a price agreed upon, WITHOUT WAIVERS being asked for.

I can vision great things taking place if such a deal is made between the two leagues. It will allow a club like the Giants to reach into the American League and BUY a player for a price much higher than that player would bring if he was sold on waivers to another American League club.

AND SELLING a player like Billy Martin to, say a club like the Giants, couldn't do anything but help both teams. For instance if the Giants could have bought Martin they could have traded Ruben Gomez and maybe Ruben would have made the Yanks a great pitcher.

Heretofore the greatest pals among the managers never could do one another a favor because generally they were in different leagues. Now it'll be a different story.

Casey Stengel and Bill Rigney have been pals for years, close pals. Yet they can't make a trade under the present setup. And many a time Stengel had to send a Yankee player down the river for the reason he didn't want to let another club in his own league take advantage of the player's hidden ability.

But under the new setup Stengel would sell the player to the Giants for one of the Giant undeveloped youngsters and still save himself any embarrassment from his own rival managers, if the player obtained made good.

"I believe the inter-trading plan, if it is adopted, will be a great means to balancing both leagues," Rigney states, "and I, for one, would like to see it go into effect this coming season."

Rigney's sailing plans as of this date call for him leaving for Phoenix Feb. 14 to start all over what he began last year... search of a pennant.

'War Crime' Trials Open In Havana

Combined AP & UP

HAVANA—The "war crime" trials of 600 defeated foes of Fidel Castro, endorsed by the cheers of more than 500,000 Cubans at yesterday's vast mass meeting here, begin today in Havana's 15,000-seat Sports Palace stadium.

In six provincial cities, firing squads awaited 42 already-condemned men in a nationwide campaign which Castro says will mean death for about 400 supporters of ousted ex-President Fulgencio Batista.

FIRST DEFENDANTS

Agriculture Minister Humberto Sori Marin, author of Cuba's new criminal code, will prosecute the first three defendants scheduled for trial here—army officers charged with the torture or murder of more than 200 persons.

Castro, after repeatedly denouncing U. S. congressmen and newsmen who had criticized Cuba's mass executions, told yesterday's meeting that the number of "war criminals" his men expect to kill amount to only about one for every 1,000 persons killed by American atomic bombs in Japan.

The remark drew a wild ovation from the crowd.

NEWSMEN TO ATTEND

About 350 newsmen from the United States and Latin America are expected to be among the spectators at the trials, and one congressman, Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D-N.Y.), also may be on hand.

Yesterday's rally in front of the Presidential Palace attracted a large part of Havana's 1,200,000 residents, plus many more from outlying provinces.

Unofficial observers guessed between 500,000 and 750,000 jammed the park in front of the palace and streets for blocks on each side.

CITES NUERNBERG

Castro cited the example set by the United States and its allies in the war crimes trials at Nuernberg as justification for Cuba's mass executions.

"All those who demand that gunmen be punished raise their hands," Castro shouted. A sea of arms waved back as the crowd roared.

The revolutionary chief also told the crowd that the new government would demand that the United States return Batista associates who had fled there so they could be tried for crimes ranging from torture to murder. He added Cuba is seeking to extradite Batista—whom he called "the Hitler of Cuba"—from his refuge in dictator Rafael Trujillo's Dominican Republic.

ENVOY TO CUBA — Philip W. Bonsal, now U.S. ambassador to Bolivia, was nominated yesterday by President Eisenhower to be new ambassador to Cuba. The post has been vacant since the overthrow of the former Cuban government.

Doctor Says Egan Still Holding Own

SEATTLE, Wash. (UP)—William A. Egan, Alaska's Democratic governor who has been hospitalized since his inauguration, was reported resting comfortably today.

Dr. Henry Bosshard, resident surgeon at the hospital where Egan underwent an emergency operation Tuesday, said he looked in on the governor late in the evening and found him still holding his own.

Egan, given only a 50-50 chance to recover when he was operated on for a bowel obstruction and paralysis of the abdomen, showed some improvement yesterday.

"So far it looks encouraging," Dr. Joel W. Baker, head of the surgical team which performed the operation, said at midafternoon.

Pasternak Reported Willing To Lecture In U.S., Britain

LONDON (UP)—Boris Pasternak, the Russian author called a traitor by Soviet authorities after winning the Nobel Prize for Literature, reportedly is willing now to make a six-week lecture tour of the United States and Britain.

Jose Vilallonga, noted Spanish author, and Prof. Philip Hallie of Vanderbilt University are seeking to arrange the tour. Vilallonga, who lives in Paris, said last night he had assurances "through diplomatic channels" that Pasternak would be willing to come.

The Soviet government warned Pasternak last November that if he left the Soviet Union

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UP)—South Americans were trading pottery with the North American Indians between 800 and 1,500 years before Christ, it was reported yesterday.

Iraq Recognizes Castro

BAGHDAD, Iraq (UP)—The Iraqi government formally recognized Cuba's revolutionary government yesterday. The Baghdad press has defended the rebel executions of supporters of ex-President Fulgencio Batista.

Strike Collapses

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (UP)—The hard core of the general strike against President Arturo Frondizi's austerity program collapsed last night.

HONOLULU (UP)—An Air Force Superconstellation lost both of its port engines, but the pilot landed it safely an hour and 80 miles later, using only the two starboard engines. Nineteen airmen were aboard the C121 radar plane which was on a reconnaissance flight.

Maj. Earl W. Bierer, the pilot, said the No. 2 engine dropped off, damaging the propeller of No. 1. His co-pilot was Maj. Mervin G. Getty.

They are based at McClellan AFB, but were on temporary duty at Hickam AFB, here.

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Actress Mae Clarke has settled her one-million-dollar invasion of privacy suit over a television show that she says pictured her as a has-been.

Terms of the out-of-court settlement were not disclosed. Attorneys for Miss Clarke and the defendant, Paramount Television Productions, Inc., reached the agreement 24 hours before the second trial was scheduled to start.

A jury ruled against Miss Clarke in the first trial last July, but her lawyer won a new trial.

Center Needs A Large Loom, Volunteer Drivers In Project

At the meeting of the Recreational Unit, an affiliate of the Marin County Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., recently, Mrs. Gertrude Cherry, San Anselmo, director of the adult program at Arequipa Center, stated that such great interest has been manifested in weaving that the large loom donated by Mrs. John Finn III, of the Friends of Arequipa, is not sufficient and hoped someone had a loom that was not in use that might be loaned to the Center, or if someone wishes to dispose of a large foot operated loom, to call Mrs. V. Bogvad Christensen, 110 Terrace Avenue, Kentfield. Mrs. Christensen has been volunteering her services in teaching weaving to handicapped adults since the program started. Many of the participants have become quite skilled working on small looms, making scarves, table mats and other small articles and some of them are anxious to make larger items which require using the large foot operated looms. The Center is open every Thursday from 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. and if any weavers would like to volunteer their services to assist Mrs. Christensen, they will be welcome.

Mrs. Richard Brown, Corte Madera, the president, states that many more participants could be accommodated if there were more drivers. She stated further that even if volunteers can only drive one way that is a big help. Perhaps several organizations would like to take this on as a project, rotating among their members. Mrs. Gordon Crosby, 617 Oakdale Avenue, Corte Madera, chairman of volunteer drivers, will be very glad to hear from anyone who can help in any section of the County.

Daum of Oroville. This was a double celebration, as it was the first time the two brothers had seen each other for 48 years, and they celebrated Carl's birthday together.

The visiting Daums will return to Whittier, Calif., where they spent the Christmas holidays with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arvin C. Daum, and their grandchildren, Christine, Randi and Jeffrey. They plan to return to their home in Huron in February.

FASHION FOCUS

300 Bay Area Women View Spring Fashions At Show

"Be More Beautiful in 1959" is possible for women of all ages now that the cold war of fashion is over and the pretty, feminine look for 1959 is here to stay.

Delighted with their first looks at spring fashions from Luana's of San Rafael and Corte Madera were the smartly dressed Bay Area women who enjoyed Rickey's "Fashion Focus" luncheon on Tuesday as it honored the Jolly Roger Chapter of the Children's Home Society.

From Marion Bellamy, coordinator of the fashion show series, the guests learned that the Jolly Roger members are much more than just good looking! They work the year round to raise funds to aid the Children's Home Society which is the oldest and largest privately supported adoption agency in California. Their many hours of volunteer work are rewarding ones for they aid the Society in providing help for the children to be adopted, the natural parents and for the couple who want to adopt.

On Tuesday, with the aid of the January "Glamour," the Jolly Roger models easily convinced the packed house that it is much easier to look pretty in 1959 than it was in 1958 if you consider four factors, fashion, figure, face and frame.

FASHION BEGINS

1959 fashion begins with the return of the natural waistline and the beloved belt, the ever increasing popularity of the shirtmaker in silks, cottons and miracle blends and has a color spree for itself with Pacific Blue, Sea Island Pink, and saucy yellow. Luana's blend of spring fashion was a happy harmony of color, texture and style and every "Fashion Focus" guest could find new spring look perfect for them.

The figure demanded with the 1959 fashions is preferably a slim, trim one, a feat achieved through the tiny Relaxicisor which fascinated the luncheon goers as it was carried among the tables by a model. They found it hard to believe that such a tiny machine can trim and tone gentlemen as well as ladies; in fact so much so, that it is standard equipment on the atomic submarines.

The best face forward for 1959 means a makeup to blend with the season's dazzling colors. Each model had been carefully and naturally made up by Beauty Counselors to perfectly compliment the Luana fashions.

Fashion, figure and face didn't quite complete the story. The final chapter, a flattering hair style to do for the wearer what a frame does for a picture, was provided by Tobie's of Novato.

"Be More Beautiful in 1959" fashion highlights chosen by Luana's from outstanding manufacturers:

From "Victor Most," who looms on the horizon as a name to watch, a diagonal stripe of aqua and turquoise riding across slim tapers; the pullover matching top fringed with white; pert brunette Mrs. Walter Derr, Jr., modeling.

LOOK OF SILK

From "Maggie Stover," the look of silk that is really cotton; Mrs. George Neuwald in full skirted champagne afternoon dress popping with turquoise polka dots, the portrait collar and wide turquoise waist band accent touches.

From "Romay of California," for Mrs. Donald Leif the California look; flowers blooming on white pique tapers, the double breasted jacket in hot coral stopping short of a tiny waist.

From "Candy Jones of California," luscious yellows and oranges in an exciting floral print, full skirted with a bold matching buckle mentioning the tiny waist of Mrs. Eric Kollgaard.

From "Susan Laurie," trim, slim, packable pebble knit white tapers, topped by a sleeveless pebble knit white pullover banded in red, white and blue and Mrs. Clyde Jones sporting them.

From "Hollywood Casuals," the season's first choice, the popular shirtmaker, checked in blue and white worn with a blue leather belt by Mrs. Jerry Young.

From "Jackie Moran," a favorite flower print in silk splashed with blues to purples sheathed and empiored for a more beautiful 1959 and Mrs. William Beadle modeling.

From "Lilli Diamond," the elegance of shocking pink chiffon, a panel with a stole effect adding drama to the shoulder of Mrs. William Hislop.

The next "Fashion Focus" luncheon, open to the public, will be Tuesday, Feb. 3, when Koret of California will be featured in a Cross Country Tour showing the Koret favorites which will be seen across the nation. There will not be a show on Jan. 27 in preparation for the special Koret Show, Feb. 3.

Open House Planned By Hearing Group

An open house to acquaint students of the College of Marin lip reading class with the Hearing Society of Marin will be held Sunday, Jan. 25, from 3 to 5 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Walter G. Van Gelder in Lucas Valley.

The lip reading class, in its third year, is sponsored by the Hearing Society and taught by one of its members, Mrs. LaVerne Schmidt of Corte Madera. Students of the three classes now held at the college are invited to attend and meet the directors of the Society.

Members of the board of directors who will greet the guests are Dr. Alexander Beaton, president; Miss Slavka Ciblich, vice president; Mrs. Victor Abrahamson, secretary; and Robert Praetzel, treasurer. Standing committee chairmen will serve as rotating hosts at the affair.

Mrs. Opal Torrance is chairman of the belated annual Holiday party, assisted by Mrs. Harold Fletcher, Fred Tower and Praetzel.

Students desiring transportation to the Van Gelder's 574 Kernberry drive residence should contact Miss Ciblich regarding arrangements.

Mill Valley P-TA Council To Sponsor Masquers, Feb. 20,

The Mill Valley Parent-Teachers Assn. Council will sponsor a dramatic reading by Mill Valley Masquers on Feb. 20 and 21 as a benefit for Project 17.

The two performances will be given at Park School in Mill Valley at 8:30 p.m.

Project 17 is a Mill Valley recreation program for teenagers recently organized under the direction of Dr. and Mrs. P. R. Danford, adult chairmen of the sponsoring committee.

The reading, "We Call To Mind," now in rehearsal under the direction of Dr. Earle Marsh, is timely in connection with the current emphasis on and re-examination of American education.

It has a cast of five creating 49 characters who present a penetrating view of the American education system, its development and growth over 160 years and its objectives for the future.

Playing the 49 roles will be Jim Sullivan, Mary Marsh, Steve Haggerty, Irene Pritzker and Rick Hackney. Dr. Marsh directed the Masquers' highly successful "Inherit The Wind" last season.

Arne Anderson, who is in charge of the production, announces that tickets will be available at local stores.

ture, literature and history. In his travels he could speak directly with the people on the streets, in museums, riverboats and elsewhere without the benefit of an official interpreter or guide.

Barbara Anderson Weds Tom Haman

Coming as a complete surprise to their many friends is the wedding of Barbara Jo Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert George Anderson of Sausalito and Thomas Edward Haman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Haman of San Rafael and formerly of San Bernardino, on Saturday, Jan. 17, at the Star of the Sea Church in Sausalito.

Prompting the hurried wedding plans of the young couple was Tom's acceptance of a position in San Bernardino and they left for that destination soon after the ceremony.

With only the immediate families and a few close friends present, the 11:30 a.m. nuptials were performed by Rev. Henry O'Flynn, pastor of Star of the Sea, before an altar decorated with white carnations and call lilies arranged by Mrs. John Churchill. Thomas Ravizza was the altar boy.

Barbara, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a suit of electric blue wool and mohair with black patent leather accessories. Her hat was a flowered cap of white bouvardia and velvet ribbon. She wore white gloves and carried a bouquet of white yellow throated orchids and bouvardia attached with white satin ribbon to a white prayer book which her mother carried at her wedding 25 years ago.

Tom's sister, Mrs. Lawrence W. Carver of San Rafael, was matron of honor for Barbara. She wore a two piece tapestry print with a red background. Her accessories were black and her flowers were white roses. Standing as best man for Tom was Rick Gonzales, a classmate of the groom at Marin Catholic High School.

Mrs. Anderson attended her daughter's wedding in a cafe au lait wool sheath dress with a V neck and three quarter length sleeves. Her hat was of gold miniature fruit and leaves and her other accessories were black. She wore a corsage of white orchids.

The benedict's mother, Mrs. Haman, was unable to attend her youngest son's wedding because of illness.

Following the single ring ceremony, lunch for the bridal party and the immediate families was held at the Alta Mira Hotel. A two tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and surrounded by gardenias centered the table.

When the new Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Haman left for San Bernardino by automobile Mrs. Haman wore her wedding suit and the orchids from her bridal bouquet.

Barbara is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Anderson of Sausalito and Mrs. Claudine MacKinnon of Mill Valley. Her only sister is Patricia who is traveling in Europe with the Virgil Scatenas of Sacramento, and Robert George Anderson Jr. is her brother.

She attended Sausalito Schools and graduated from St. Brigid's School in San Francisco and Marin Catholic High School. She attended the College of Marin where she was a member of the Di Rhan Theas Sorority.

For Carpet Buyers

MINNEAPOLIS (UP) — Because a carpet is an infrequent purchase for most families, few customers know what to look for.

Mrs. Myra Zabel, a home furnishing expert at the University of Minnesota, offers these suggestions:

First, determine the needs of your home and family. For example, cotton is cheap but wears fast and mats; rayon mats and soils easily but cleans easily; wool is resilient, resists soiling but is subject to attack by moths; nylon will outwear wool but mats easily.

Price can be a guide in buying carpeting, Mrs. Zabel said. For less than $10, you can buy cotton, rayon, blends of rayon and nylon and blends of rayon and wool. In the $10 to $12 group there are low-priced wools; from $12 to $15 the 100 per cent wools, and more than $15, high-quality wools and nylons.

Old China Hands Elect Marinite

Rear Adm. David D. Hawkins (ret.), a resident of Corte Madera, recently was elected president of the China Tiffin Club of San Francisco.

Members of the club are "old China hands," who meet each month to renew old friendships, eat Chinese food and hear informal talks on the Orient.

Admiral Hawkins served as commander of the Navy's training detachment based at Tsingtao, China, after World War II. Since his retirement from the Navy he has joined the faculty of College of Marin as an instructor of basic mathematics.

Fairfax Sixth Graders Score High In Tests

Seventy-eight Fairfax sixth graders tested above their grade level in arithmetic, grammar and spelling, Principal Homer Sisk has reported to Fairfax School District trustees.

Although all 120 sixth graders took the California achievement tests, Sisk reported on the scores of only 78 who had been in the district for the fifth grade and took an I.Q. test last year.

Scores of the 78 youngsters ranged from third grade to ninth grade achievement in all three tests, he said.

In arithmetic, 44 were above and 34 below their grade level; in grammar and spelling, 51 were above and 27 below grade level; in reading, 63 were above and 15 below grade level.

In another report, the trustees were told Tuesday night that Kuhlmann-Anderson tests given to all fifth graders in Fairfax schools last fall showed an I.Q. range from 75 to 130. The trustees also:

1. Certified that the six-classroom addition at Manor School was completed Jan. 16. A $300 penalty will be deducted from the $116,725 building price because contractor Robert Miller exceeded the contracted completion time. On Feb. 2 the Deer Park eighth grade class will move to Fairfax Central School and sixth and seventh grade Fairfax Central classes will move to Manor School.

2. Authorized Supt. Harold R. DePue to have a small piece of property across Manor creek from Fairfax Central School appraised and try to arrange for its purchase by the City of Fairfax. The city had entertained hopes that the 100-by-200 foot piece of property, adjoining Fairfax Park, would be donated by the school district.

3. Approved March 30 at 8 p.m. at Isabel Cook School in San Anselmo as the date for a joint meeting with San Anselmo and Kentfield Districts to review teachers' salaries.

4. Limited kindergarten enrollment at Manor School to its present number of 68 in two classes. Superintendent DePue said any new kindergarten pupils could be enrolled at the Deer Park kindergarten and transported there by bus.

The number of orphans in the U.S. has declined from 6.4 million in 1920 to 2.7 million in 1958.

High '58 Occupancy Reported By Hospital

Marin General Hospital had a near-capacity daily average of 92 patients last year, reported S. Ames Pence, administrator. Although the licensed capacity of the hospital is 104 patients, Pence said "good hospital procedure indicates an occupancy of 78 patients." By using the hospital emergency room and putting two patients in rooms intended for one, the capacity may be expanded in an emergency to 126.

Pence reported that eight patients were turned away from Marin General Hospital on Monday. On Tuesday morning, 109 patients had been admitted and another three were waiting in the emergency room. One patient was hospitalized on the second floor corridor and one was in the fourth floor corridor.

Pence reported that last week the hospital was equally crowded. "Overcrowding at Marin General is serious as we cannot give the same care we would at a normal level of occupancy," he said.

Last year the number of patients admitted to Marin General Hospital totaled 6,925.

June was the peak month with 611 patients in the hospital. June also was the most popular month to have a baby at Marin General Hospital. There were 178 births that month, and a total of 1,878 during the year.

Other statistics in the annual report for 1958 included:

Emergency treatments, 6,262; children in the pediatrics wards, 1,853; X-ray examinations, 5,274; laboratory tests, 53,523; physical therapy treatments, 3,801; electro-encephalographs, 273.

Homestead Improvement Club Elects

Bernard J. Tomberlaine, mechanical engineer with offices in San Francisco, Tuesday night was named president of the Homestead Improvement Club. He succeeds Dr. William Loran.

Other officers elected were Herbert H. Korner, vice president; Mrs. Anne Treverton, secretary, and Charles Mott, building superintendent.

Directors named were Christopher Bratt; Lloyd Burris, Mel W. Henriod, Mrs. Jo Mary Hicks, Mrs. Edwin A. Mamura, Mrs. Virginia Spaulding and Gustaf F. Wolf.

Members discussed the tax rate increase request of Tamalpais High School District. A charter for Homestead Boy Scout Troop 54 was presented. A film on fuchsia and begonia growing provided by new director Henriod was exhibited.

Juvenile Delinquent Sentences At Peak

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — California courts sent more juvenile delinquents to reform schools last year than ever before in history.

The California Youth Authority said yesterday that 4,629 youthful law breakers were sent to correctional institutions during 1958.

The previous record was 4,293 set in 1957.

Youth Authority Director Heyman G. Stark said despite the record number of admissions, 468 youths were held on a waiting list. They will be sent to institutions as soon as space is available.

San Rafael Rotarians To Entertain Wives

Wives of San Rafael Rotarians will have a chance to confirm hearsay impressions of "their husbands' luncheon club" when they are Valentine guests at the Feb. 9 luncheon of the San Rafael Rotary Club.

Featured on the program will be the choir of Marin Catholic High School, announced chairman of the day Bill Costello. The luncheon begins at noon at the San Rafael Women's Improvement Club.

Concert Set By Youth Orchestra

The Marin Youth Orchestra will present its first concert of the year at 3 p. m. Saturday in the Novato High School auditorium.

The program will be the first of a series sponsored by the Symphony Guild of Marin and geared to varying age groups.

Saturday's selections have been chosen with a junior high school audience in mind. Among them will be "Peter and the Wolf" by Prokofiev, which will be narrated by Barry Mineah.

ORIGINAL COMPOSITION

Also on the program will be a composition by Rosemary Von Bima, a pianist and member of the orchestra, which will be conducted by Lee Fullerton, assistant conductor of the orchestra and a composer himself. Both are students at San Rafael High School.

Soloists for the afternoon will be violinist Tom Reynolds of San Rafael, clarinetist Martha Morse of Corte Madera and contralto Claudia Colburn of Corte Madera. The orchestra is under direction of Hugo Rinaldi.

MUSIC FOR MINORS

For junior listeners, the Symphony Guild has planned "Music for Minors" with a first program scheduled for Feb. 7 and two to follow later.

For high school age symphony-goers, the Marin Youth Orchestra will present its annual youth orchestra concert April 17, not Feb. 17 as previously stated. It will begin at 8:30 p. m. in Marin Catholic High School auditorium.

In March the regular Symphony Guild orchestra will present its second concert of the season.

THE PARENTS' CORNER

How To Educate Girl Whose Mother Has Deserted Her?

"My wife deserted us two months ago," I wrote a rather famous man. "I've kept it a secret so far. She ran away without warning. We have one child, a girl of 10. The desertion has been a blow to her. She has been sick with sorrow. At first I planned to put her into a boarding school. When she learned of my plan, she became hysterical. She begged to stay with me. Her reaction puzzles me. Why shouldn't she want to go to a good school? Wouldn't she be better off? I'll be guided by your reply, Dr. Barbour. What should I do?"

Let her stay with you. Look at the situation through her eyes. She has depended on both of her parents. Suddenly her mother deserted. In effect her mother told her that she didn't love her, and didn't want her. To a child desertion is emotional murder. Almost nothing could be worse. Your shock was great. Your daughter's shock was greater.

But you remain. She loves you more than ever. She needs you desperately. She senses that she still can build her life around you. Could she get hysterical when you suggested she leave. Keep her close to you. Share your life with her. Try not to be too self-centered. Hire a really good housekeeper. You'll have many problems. For help with them go to parents of other girls in her group. When you really are stumped, check with a child psychologist. You'll find psychologists on the faculty of any college.

Later your girl may recover her equilibrium. Then she might want to go away to a boarding school, or to college. At that time it would be okay. But not now. You've some busy and important years ahead. Good luck!

Other languages offered in California high schools are French, 28,531 students; German, 7,921 students; Italian, 654 students, and Chinese, 21 students.

Pay-TV Executive Has Eye On College Football

By JIM KENSIL
NEW YORK (AP)—Matty Fox, the man who hopes to put West Coast major league baseball on a pay-TV basis, soon will make a pitch to the NCAA for college football telecasts.
Fox, president of Skiatron, Inc., maintains his pay-as-you-see TV system holds a potentially great return for college football.
After almost two years of behind-the-scenes maneuvering, Fox still has not made clear his plans for baseball pay-TV. The move toward the gridiron became known only through an obscure reference in the report of the 1958 NCAA television committee which was published last week at the NCAA convention in Cincinnati.
Buried halfway through 43 pages of fine print was this statement:
"GREAT RETURN"
"On Dec. 15, 1958, a representative of Skiatron of America, the operating company for the Skiatron central billing closed circuit subscription television system, advised the 1958 television committee that it would be ready to meet with the 1959 television committee early in the year and would be prepared to submit a definite proposal for a specific area. The company predicts that the system will offer a potentially great return to college football."
NCAA officials said comment would have to wait until after the TV committee met with Skiatron, but it was believed the reference to a "specific area" meant Fox would utilize his Los Angeles-San Francisco baseball facilities for telecasts of West Coast college football. These would serve presumably as a testing ground for a possible national program.
Fox, a close-mouthed individual, never discusses his plans publicly. He believes it gives his competitors an unfair advantage.
At present, of course, the entire NCAA-controlled TV program is on conventional television, although the NCAA permitted 13 games last season on closed circuits to alumni and undergraduate groups.
The TV committee report said this about pay-TV:
"Be it further resolved, that the 1959 television committee shall give full and careful consideration to the possible and probable impact of subscription, closed circuit and delayed television upon provisions with respect thereto as it deems necessary to prevent adverse effects upon college football."
MUST BE APPROVED
The report added that no NCAA member institution may make any form of TV contract, including pay-TV, until the 1959 TV plan is approved by the committee.
The committee said:
"One of the most difficult problems—proper provision for subscription television and closed circuit television—remains unsolved, chiefly because its scope and nature are not yet known."
It looks as though Fox will have a heap of talking and explaining to do.
